

Imaginaryverse

VS

Crimzonverse

Clash of worlds

INT. Tower of Elites/Thunderer's and Infinity's room. Day

Thunderer (A superhero in a green costume with a green hood and a domino mask, a silver face mask covers the lower part of his face. His sleeves are black up to the elbows, and white from the elbows. His pants are black and wide to the knees, and narrow and white from the knees down. he was wearing slippers and had a blue "T" on his chest that looked like lightning) and Infinity (A superhero, with long red hair, her costume is kimono-inspired, purple in color and looks like a coat from the waist down. he wears long white gloves and deep white boots with heel) came into their room, a large room, painted in a soft blue color, one whole wall is covered by a shelf on which there are various books, comics and action figures of Thunderer's and Infinity's friends, next to the shelf there is a small, round table with two chairs, and parallel to that wall, a king sized bed. Thunderer immediately went to bed, without changing his clothes.

Thunderer

It's been a very long day, but I can finally get some rest.

Infinity smiled, but at that moment her expression quickly changed too worried, and she just teleported out of the room. Thunderer immediately jumped off the bed, all worried/scared.

Thunderer

Honey!?

Thunderer is also teleported in the same way as Infinity.

INT. A room in an inter-dimensional coliseum. Day

Thunderer appears in front of Infinity, standing next to him is another person he knows "Fuse". (The superhero, a cowboy, with long tied hair and a cowboy hat, has a neat brown beard and a red scarf around his neck. He wears a dark blue shirt, with a brown leather vest over it, and so are his pants. The boots were also made of brown leather, but a different shade)

They were in a strange room, it was not square, but round and huge, the north side was glass and showed a mixture of blue and purple stars. Thunderer is familiar with that scene, it is the space between dimensions. They stood on black tiles that had patterns on them, so that they imitated stone. The wall was a very light gray color, the room was nicely lit, although there were no lamps or chandeliers anywhere. The only things in that room were four couches, three chairs, and a long, low, wooden table. There was also a smaller, round floating platform, no larger than seventy centimeters in diameter, it was raised about a meter and a half from the ground, but it seems that its position and height can be changed.

Infinity

Leo, they got you too?

Thunderer

Who are they?

Behind Thunderer was Horokos Malum and Professor Keller, owners of Paranormal Action Agency appeared before them. Horokos is wearing a long buttoned black coat, under which only black boots were visible. He had long black hair and a serious look. Professor Keller had a robot body, wore a white shirt, black vest, black pants and shoes, a black hat and sunglasses.

Horokos

This is the work of Ultrius, a mysterious cosmic being that accompanied me and the Professor in many jobs. Sometimes he chooses to intervene and help, and sometimes he just silently observes.

Professor

Hence called "Observer."

Tomato

Cosmic being? Is it possible that origin of his powers is the same as mine?

Tomato was a man transformed into a tomato, his head took on the shape and color of a tomato, he had dreadlocks made of green branches, sunglasses, a sweatshirt that overflowed with different shades of blue, from darker to lighter. A long, unbuttoned, black coat with blue "B" on his back, sleeveless. He had a blue tomato leaf on his belt, black pants, and a bonsai tree with a blue leaf on his shoulders.

Thunderer

Laki, you are here too?

Tomato

Yeah, a lot of familiar faces are here, I'm doing my best to act cool.

Thunderer turns around to see Infinity, Horokos, Professor, Fuse, Furious Lizard, Megawatt, Cosmic Tomato, Fortune Cookie, Desert Fox, John Diaz, Pwerwus, Masaro, Quad, Overkill, Light Spectre, Mordecai Lucky and Zajla.

Horokos

I don't know answer to your question about Cosmic energy, I don't know the origin or the method of use, magic is my specialty, and there is nothing magical about it.

Professor

I keep telling him to go on a course and expand PAA to the cosmic side, there is more work there these days.

Their attention was caught by the shadow of a winged man flying above them, it was Ultrius, he landed on the platform above them for all to see, he spread his arms and smiled. Ultrius had short gray hair, looked very young, had wide white wings, and was dressed in a white suit with light gray sarees.

Ultrius

Good afternoon, ladies, and gentlemen, welcome to the inter-dimensional coliseum, also known as PMT, short for Private Multiversal Tournament.

Thunderer

Should we react?

Infinity

Let us see what he wants, then we will decide.

Ultrius

This is a very special season because the fight between the two universes will be broadcast throughout the known and unknown multiverse. I personally chose your universe and named it the Imaginary-verse.

Professor (to Horokos)

Do you think we can trademark that name and sue him for copyright?

John Diaz

So, you expect us to just fight for your entertainment?

John Diaz was a volunteer, reinforced with an exo skeleton of a mixture of purple and blue, he had black hair and a small beard, next to him is Pwervus, a literal ball of electrical energy.

Ultrius

Yes and no. What makes this season special is that all proceeds are for charity, the proceeds will be distributed to the most vulnerable, and we expect the amount to be huge.

John Diaz

Yeah... sorry but no, you helped me in the past, but since then I've been a wanted criminal, I don't want to get involved in this kind of thing anymore.

Pwervus

If Diaz doesn't want to fight, then I don't want to fight either.

Ultrius

No problem, it's your choice, I'm not holding anyone hostage.

Ultrius snapped his fingers, Diaz and the Pwervus teleported out of the room.

EXT. City Street, day

A stream of electricity is seen streaming through power lines when a human figure comes out of the lines. This was the superhero Sparkwave of Sparkton City, and he was in a hurry. Sparkwave was in a teal/blue spandex fabric suit with yellow highlights, a yellow and gold lightning bolts crossed his chest, and a yellow vizor over his eyes.

Sparkwave

Last thing I wanna be is late. Why did it have to be an Ultimate on the loose.

Sparkwave takes off in a direction when a sudden light envelope him and he disappears.

INT. A room 2 in an inter-dimensional colosseum. Day.

In a flash of light Sparkwave comes running out of a light before colliding with an energy field. Sparkwave ended up in a room that looks exactly like the room Thunderer teleported into.

Sparkwave

Ouch! What the heck just happened?

Sparkwave looks around and sees a rather large room with several other energy field boxes with occupants in them.

Sparkwave

Oh man! Sam's gonna kill me for missing our date!

Behind Sparkwave he hears a female speak.

Crimzon Mask

Is that seriously your way of reacting to this situation?

This was the Crimzon Mask. A ninja with a skintight black attire. Shoulder armors and a set of katana blades. She also wore a black hood with a red mask covering her face.

From another spot spoke another woman.

Valiant

Well, considering how we were just transported out of nowhere from our preoccupations it makes no surprise. I was in the middle of preparing a thesis statement on matter theory.

Valiant was a tall woman with silver and teal colored tight suit with gold outlines around her waist, knees, and shoulders. Along with a mint green cape, a golden curved V in a green circle on her chest, and silver light-blue hair.

From another spot a man in red.

Phoenix Fighter

Any other day I wouldn't mind skipping out in a company meeting, but this is not what I had in mind.

Phoenix Fighter was a dark-skinned man in a red spandex suit and cowl with silver outlines. Wrist tech gauntlets and a utility belt. Finished off with a phoenix insignia on his chest.

Sparkwave is looking around seeing figures he recognizes and those he doesn't.

Sparkwave

Hey I know you! You're that ninja who came to my city once. What was it, Crimzon Mask?

Crimzon Mask

If you recall I was chasing after a maniac who tried to escape in your town.

Sparkwave

I remember you flipping me on my butt.

Crimzon Mask

You were stepping over your bounds.

Sparkwave

Uh, no, I wasn't I was stopping you from threatening that guy with your sword.

Crimzon Mask

That's what I m- never mind. Such a child.

Phoenix Fighter

Let's all focus here. Where are we, and what's going on?

In another energy field was a silver robot humanoid with red glows who spoke up.

A.T.O.M.

I'm detecting a lot of activity going on in this environment, but I have no familiarity on the elements surrounding us.

Everyone else was caught off guard by their other cellmate.

Sparkwave

I don't think I know you. And are you a robot?

The robot named A.T.O.M. looked down upon himself and took notice of his appearance.

A.T.O.M.

Huh? I don't recall turning off my disguise function. Well, that secret is out. To answer your question, I'm an Artificial Intelligence in an Artificial Techno Organic Machine body. Call me A.T.O.M.

Sparkwave had a confused face on him due to not understanding at all.

Sparkwave

Ok, A.I. I got but the rest-

Before finishing his sentence, all are attracted to the attention of smashing sounds. Another energy box contained what looked like female bug humanoid with features of a horned beetle and four arms. She was bashing against the force-field trying to break through.

Herculean

Ugh, I hate being imprisoned. Where are we?

Everyone was caught off guard with the alien bug talking.

A.T.O.M.

(to himself)

Well, at least I'm not the strange one.

Herculean

What was that?

A.T.O.M.

Sorry.

Out of nowhere an echo voice spoke, with the lights all around turning on, making the room look like a bright voided space.

Choicemaker

Well, to answer your question my buggo friend, we're in the brief room. Preparing the brief, (hehakaka) brief I kill me, of your soon to be call to entertainment act-cion!

Appearing out of nowhere floated what appears to be a golden glowing skinned, skinny man wearing a shirt and sweater vest and khaki pants. With a visibly freckled face and glasses.

Choicemaker

Greetings fellow heroes and villains! I am the Choicemaker, I am your host for this half of the Primitive Multiversal Tournament, PMT for short. And you'll be participating in it.

From Valiant's energy block, the heroine has her Celestiangel Mentor, Cosmaya, manifest as she speaks to her.

Cosmaya

Oh great, this guy!

Valaint

You know him?

Before Cosmaya can say anything, Choicemaker immediately has her removed out of Valiant's block and puts her in another. This causes Valiant to de-power and shrink to her normal appearance. A strawberry blonde petite girl.

Choicemaker

Yooo, is this not a treat? One of the Celestiangels is here too. So, this was the choice you picked as your host. (Examines Valiant.) Meh, I've seen better. (looks at her again) Then again, this one is pretty.

Valiant grunts in disgust.

Cosmaya

Do you have any idea how much trouble someone like you will get for kidnapping these mortals outside their universe?

Choicemaker (to Cosmaya)

Oh please, before you go playing the moral high ground on me, know that I am not breaking any rules. (He addresses to all the occupants.) You'll will be sent right back in the same exact moment of your personal boring lives. Seriously your more intriguing lives are way better, should do that 24/7. Being an Observer of your worlds really is a peak of interest to my taste. Like those comic books and cartoons you make. I swear that's the best inventions you mortals have created, I even dressed myself to better suit my appreciation to it.

Phoenix Fighter

So, you're an all-powerful inter-dimensional being with a job of observing worlds, which I'm assuming proves the multiverse theory, and decided to take on the appearance of a golden-

Sparkwave

GEEK!

Phoenix Fighter

Yeah that.

Choicemaker makes an annoyed face before crashing Cosmaya back into Valiant, giving her powers back and transforming her into her hero state.

Choicemaker

I prefer the term faithful observant fan. We'll call it FOF cuz why not. I'm FOFfy. Hahahaha!

A.T.O.M.

This really screws my micro nanite brain cells so much.

Herculean

All you got me at was tournament. Does this involve fighting. Why don't we skip to the finally of me crushing your polka dot face!

Phoenix Fighter

Ok timeout everyone. Choicemaker, you call yourself? What exactly do you want with us? And what did you mean by "heroes and villains?"

Choicemaker

Well to answer your second question-

Choicemaker motions around revealing the current six he was talking to were not the only ones. There were other individuals unrecognizable but some villains the heroes clearly recognized. From Sparkwave he sees Prismattack, Huge, Jolt Virus. Crimzon Mask sees Varrick Evans and Black Thorn. Valiant sees Cherry Pixie, Tower Titan (depowered at the moment), and Dr. Centipede. Lastly, Phoenix Fighter recognizes Majunga Khan, Lady Siren, and Dr. Phantom.

Choicemaker

To answer your first, you're all part of a tournament, not just for my own entertainment, but you guys are gonna help settle a little bet I made.

Sparkwave

Is he... Is he going to make us fight our villains?

Choicemaker

No, I have seen those fights more than enough times, I'm looking for something more entertaining.

A.T.O.M.

Can you elaborate?

Choicemaker

Your universe, The Crimzon-verse, as I named it, including heroes and villains will fight heroes and anti-heroes from other universe, so called Imaginary-verse.

Choicemaker reached a wall, rested his hand on it and moved it like a curtain, behind the wall was glass, which revealed another room where the characters from the Imaginary-verse were.

INT. A room in an inter-dimensional coliseum. Day

Thunderer and the others looked through the glass and saw heroes from another universe, Thunderer immediately recognized Sparkwave.

Thunderer

Hey, I know this guy, his name is Sparkwave, I visited his world last year, when I went... when I tried to go on holiday.

We can see Sparkwave next to window smiling and saying something.

Thunderer

I can't hear you mate...

Ultrius

It looks like that crossover went under our radar. But still, it is for charity, so who cares.

Light Spectre

So yeah, about that. You keep mentioning struggles and charities, but if there is something for us? I specifically ask for myself.

Light Specter is Thunderer's ex-girlfriend, she had white hair with red ends, wore a black, leather crop top with a black, leather crop top jacket over it and black pants. she had a vine tattoo on her stomach, which covered the scar.

Ultrius

A new experience and a warm feeling around the heart

Light Spectre

I'm afraid that is not gonna work for me.

Ultrius teleports Light Spectre out of the room. Infinity couldn't help it, she smiled slightly at that.

Ultrius

Anyone else wants to leave?

Fuse

I mean, if it is for a charity, I have an excuse to practice my aim at some random heroes.

Mordecai

And it will be a good chance to redeem myself from the last PMT.

An elderly man, gray haired, leaning on a gold staff, wearing a white formal suit, with a gold tie and a gold pocket watch.

Tomato

You were already here...? Wait a minute. Who are you?

Mordecai

My name is Mordecai Lucky, you may know me better as Winter Tiger, a name I haven't used in a very long time.

Thunderer

Wait, you were in a team with my grandfather?

Mordecai

I like the style of the uniform, very reminiscent of Powerwave, you don't let the memory of your grandfather die.

Masaro

Guys, guys, guys, enough chatting, we came here to fight, let's do it.

Masaro had slightly darker skin, red hair, short, black sweatshirt and pants and a burgundy unbuttoned coat, sleeveless.

INT. A room 2 in an inter-dimensional colosseum. Day

Sparkwave after seeing Thunderer.

Sparkwave

No way. Thunderer, is that you bro?! Dude! You're alright! How did you manage to beat that bad guy?

Thunderer is talking through the barrier, but no sound is heard.

Sparkwave

Dude, I can't hear you.

Choicemaker

You can't hear the opposing side and they can't hear you. And you know him? When did this happen?

Sparkwave

It happened not long ago, we- wait what do you mean opposing? And I know the word, but what do you mean?!

Choicemaker

Like I said, this is a tournament. You'll be facing him later.

Sparkwave

Wait! What?!!!

Phoenix Fighter

So, you kidnap us to fight heroes from another universe for your own entertainment. That sounds rather barbaric.

Choicemaker

Seriously with this "kidnapping!" You guys are chosen to be part of an AMAZING, ENTERTAINING, MAGNIFICENT EVENT. Oh yeah, and for charity.

Valiant

Charity? For what?

Choicemaker

Your simple mind cannot understand.

Valiant

Simple?

Cosmaya

I really find that hard to believe. But I am understanding what you're referring now.

Choicemaker

Haha, I knew the embodiment of grace and nurturing understood. Now you realize the "Big Guy" won't really be upset over this.

Cosmaya

(cross her arms in disgust)

Don't push your luck.

Crimzon Mask

This sounds like a complete waste of time.

Choicemaker

Oh, you'll love it later.

Sparkwave

Can we get back to the part where we're fighting. I don't like that idea.

Choicemaker

(To himself)

Sheesh I keep forgetting he's not so bright.

(To Sparkwave)

Relax Sparky, like I said this is for charity, so don't expect you have to drastically hurt someone.

Herculean

I make no promises.

Crimzon Mask

Depending on the case, same here.

Crimzon Mask says as she looks at the villains below, particularly Varrick Evans. Who's making all kinds of faces under his mask.

Phoenix Fighter

What I want to know is, are you having us team up with our mortal enemies?

Looking down at the villains each was making their own intimidating expression.

Valiant

Yeah, I don't think you get the severity here.

Valiant particularly looks at Tower Tyrant. She sees he is de-powered but is aware of the danger if he comes conscious.

Choicemaker

Pshhah! I got this covered. Don't worry there will be no rough housing with each of you. I'll make sure of that. And you will all get along.

The heroes look down again, unsure what to think.

A.T.O.M.

This is not gonna go so well.

Choicemaker

So, any more questions.

Sparkwave sheepishly raises his hand.

Choicemkaer

Really?

Sparkwave

Umm, why are we in these boxes while those guys have a... nice room.

Choicemaker

Well, I needed to establish things first with everyone. Now that that's taken care of-

Choicemaker snaps his fingers and all the participant on the Crimzonverse are put in a comfier room.

Choicemaker

Now I'll leave you all to it. The first match starts soon. So, get to mingling.

Choicemaker disappears. Leaving the heroes and villains in a stare down. The villains make their grunts and cackles.

A.T.O.M.

Yeah, this isn't gonna end well.

INT. A VIP room in an inter-dimensional coliseum. Day

Ultrius and Choicemaker teleported to a separate VIP room with a monitor. The room was small, it was right between the rooms of the two universes, Ultrius was sitting on the couch in the half of the room that crossed into the Imaginary-verse part, and Choicemaker was sitting in the half of the room that crossed into the.

Ultrius

Hey, I noticed half the guys you chose were villains, some violent ones. What's the deal?

Choicemaker

Well, there are not too many heroes at the moment that are as good as the ones I brought. And besides we set this thing up to where there'd be no fatalities right? So, what's the big deal.? Besides, it might make things more exciting.

Ultrius

Yeesh... Do you think that they will be chill in room together? I mean your heroes and villains.

Choicemaker

ehh, maybe separate the ones that'll cause more problems, the other I'm pretty sure will cooperate. If it gets hazy, we'll just yoink em outta there. Varrick Evans, Dr. phantom, huge, and Prismattack can defiantly be in the room. Make their presence taunt the heroes.

Ultrius

You know what, let them all stay in same room, I would like to see some drama, if things get dangerous, we will intervene.

The characters from both universes look expectantly at the monitor which rotates their images to determine the first fight, eventually the monitor shows Furious Lizard fighting Crimzon Mask.

Ultrius

From the Imaginary-Verse we have the Furious Lizard, a forty-eight-year-old police officer who got his powers on the job while chasing down a maniac scientist. His abilities are super strength and regeneration, but he says that anger is his greatest weapon.

Choicemaker

And from the Crimzon-Verse, ironically named, The Crimzon Mask. She has no powers like our lizard opponent here, but don't let that trip you up. She's a skilled assassin in the arts of Ninjitsu and Samurai swordsmanship. All on her quest for atonement after a vengeful past. Spoiler folks, this isn't the first scaly character she's taken on.

INT. Arena, day

Furious Lizard (A human-sized Lizard, two and a half meters tall, wears a wide dark gray coat, and underneath it black military armor) and Crimson Mask were teleported to the coliseum arena, an empty, round field, covered in sand, but it soon began to change appearance, the floor beneath our two fighters began to shake, as buildings rose out of the ground and streets formed to replicate small village.

Crimzon Mask

(over her head)

I don't know what kind of game you're playing but I will not participate...

Crimzon Mask immediately dodges a claw strike from Furious Lizard. Backflipping out of the way making distance.

Crimzon Mask

You have nothing to gain from this.

Furious Lizard

No talking-

Lizard extends his claws making a sharp sound.

Furious Lizard

-only bloodshed.

Lizard dashes again and Crimson Mask defends by throwing stars at lizard. He slashes them out of the way. Crimson Mask jumps onto a house roof, with Lizard following. Crimson Mask unsheathes one of her swords.

Crimzon Mask

Fine if it's a fight you want (Pulls the rest of the katana sword out and gets into a stance) It's a fight you'll get.

Furious Lizard viscously smiles and again lunges at Crimzon Mask. Claws and blade clash as they parry blows. She manages to cause some cuts on Lizard, only to see them heal rapidly.

INT. VIP room, day

Watching Choicemaker comments.

Choicemaker

Hey that's not fair, how is someone who heals like that supposed to be transported out if they technically are not in mortal danger?

Ultrius

Tough luck golden boy. Besides, isn't that a default to most characters anyway?

Choicemaker pouts.

INT. Arena, day

Crimzon Mask and Furious lizard continue to parry with Crimzon Mask continuously being pushed back.

Eventually Lizard makes a final tackle at Crimzon Mask, and both fall to the ground, as they were doing so, Crimzon Mask slightly opens her hand as a small pellet flies out, along with the gravity, flies into Furious Lizards mouth.

Both hit the ground with Furious Lizard on top of Crimzon Mask about to make his killing strike.

INT. VIP room, day

Ultrius

First one bites the dust.

INT. Arena, day

Before the teleportation takes Crimzon Mask, Furious Lizard immediately recoils off her, coughing up smoke, before falling to the ground and being teleported away.

INT. VIP room, day

Ultrius is left stunned and surprised.

Choicemaker

What's the matter? Choking on defeat. Hahahaha!

INT. A room in an inter-dimensional coliseum. Day

Characters from the Imaginary-verse are sitting on couches and chairs, with pizzas and snacks, looking at the screen on the wall that was broadcasting the fight and showing Lizard's defeat.

Professor

(to Horokos)

Did you figure something out?

Horokos

I'll need more time.

Horokos and Thunderer looked at each other in silence, Thunderer nodded and got up from his chair.

Thunderer

Ok guys, maybe we lost the first fight, but not the tournament, Lizard gave his best, but it's just a sign to us that we need to work harder and understand that our opponents are not easy targets.

Images circled on the monitor behind Thunderer, which stopped at Masaro and Huge. Masaro, all excited, got up from the couch and put his hand on Thunderer's shoulder, winking at him.

Masaro

Don't worry, boss. Lizard was old school, its time has passed, it's time for the new generation to show how it's done.

INT. Arena, day
Round 2 of PMT.

Ultrius

Not originally from the Imaginary-verse, but settled there, not the destined ruler of the flame nation, the one and only Masaro, The Eruption.

Choicemaker

And our next Crimzon-Verse contestant, he's blue, he's a brute, he's HUGE! That's his name by the way. A whopping 1,000 pounds of muscle and madness. He once was a so-called-protector of the peace against superhumans, before turning into one himself and going bad.

INT. Inter-dimensional coliseum, day

Masaro gets teleported in sand arena, on the other side of arena is Huge. Huge stretches out his arms and prepares to fight as the arena around them turns into a swamp, with lake, mud and trees.

Masaro

Hey big guy! There is need for you to warm up, I'll do that for you. Fire appears around Masaro's fist and hair.

Huge

We'll see if you'll be so talkative when you're drowning in swamp water.

INT. VIP room, day

Ultrius

What an interesting pairing this is. Two opponents with huge egos, one of them will go home crying.

Choicemaker

I just hope that the two of them will fight more than they will talk.

INT. arena, day

Masaro ran towards Huge, used his fire to throw himself into the air and jump onto Huge's shoulders, grabbing him by the ponytail and laughing out loud to try and provoke Huge. Huge ran towards the thick trunk of the tree and ran through it with all his strength, breaking it into small pieces, fortunately Masaro reacted in time and a moment before the collision with the tree, he jumped from Huge's shoulders.

Huge stopped for a second and received a small ball of fire in the middle of his face, he shook his head and saw Masaro about ten meters in front of him.

Masaro

I hope that tree didn't give you a concussion, I want this victory to be completely mine.

Huge

Poor kid, you don't know what you're getting yourself into. I got news for you charcoals; my body heats up when I flex. This is not the best match for you.

As soon as Huge finished his sentence, he threw himself at Masaro with all his might, Masaro dodged the attack, but you could see the shock on his face.

Masaro

Yo, big boy! I know this is for entertainment but aren't you taking this too far?

Huge

What's the matter Hot Pebble? Too "huge" of a problem?

Huge swings his fists at Masaro, Masaro dodged some blows, blocked some with his fire shield, but received most of the blows, he used the big amount of fire and smoke to give himself space and time to move away from Huge, on his face you could see the injuries from the blow in addition to the shock, his smug smile from a few seconds ago completely disappeared, he is thinking about how something so heavy and massive can move so fast.

Huge didn't give him time to think, he jumped him again, this time Masaro set his whole body on fire, changing into a flame form, but at that moment, Huge gave him a hard kick in the chest that threw him backwards, straight into the lake. Masaro began to sink, his fire dying, before he even had a chance to use it. But the panic on Masaro's face could only be seen the moment he noticed Huge's silhouette above the water. Huge grabbed Masaro by the neck and kept him pinned to the bottom of the lake with all his weight. The surface of the lake began to evaporate, and Huge to frown, the water soon began to boil. Huge soon jumped out of the lake with visible burns on his arm.

Huge

How?

The water level in the lake was cut in half and Masaro came out of it, black smoke was coming out of Masaro, while his flame form formed around his body again, this time more slowly. Masaro started to howl with a horrible sound of pain, the branches and leaves around Huge started to burn, Masaro looked sideways at Huge, he formed another fireball in his hand, much bigger than before.

Masaro

So, you wanna play that way? Time to turn up the heat!

Masaro throws the fireball straight at Huge, a second before it hit, Huge was teleported out of the arena. Masaro falls to his knees and his flame form is lost, Masaro gets up on his feet and raises his fist in the air like a champion, signifying his victory.

INT. Arena, day

Round 3 of PMT

Ultrius

A person who had to be nerfed by life, because his body can't handle the power he has, a person who has four elements, but because of a chip in the back of his head, he can only use the electric and air element. There isn't a team he hasn't been on, but he proudly leads the Elites, his grandfather's team, which inspired Thunderer's superhero career.

Choicemaker

And his opponent, we have the Jolt Virus. A nasty little thing who nearly took out a whole city of its electricity, hence its reason for creation. Once a simple computer virus, now a living one.

INT. Arena, day

Thunderer and Jolt Virus get teleported into an arena. Soon after, the arena began to change shape and rise outside the ring of the arena, forming itself into a floating island. Thunderer began to stretch his arms and warm himself up.

Thunderer

You can fly, right? Looks like they're forcing us to have a air fight

Jolt Virus made some kind of sound, which sounded like the growling of a dog with bad autotune.

Thunderer

Either you don't talk, or you are very aggressive. I had a feeling some of you guys didn't look friendly.

Jolt Virus charged towards Thunderer, but he is able to counter with an Electric Fist, right in Jolt Virus's face. Jolt Virus flew back a few meters, and at that moment the electricity left Thunderer's hand and transferred to Jolt Virus.

Thunderer

Oh man! My bad. Looks like I used more electricity than I wanted. I know this is a friendly fight, I didn't want to start so fiercely.

Jolt Virus rises from the ground and licks his lips. That startled Thunderer a bit, he unconsciously took a step back and raised his guard.

Thunderer

If my theory is correct, you will be a big problem for me.

Thunderer created two electric blades around his wrists and flew into the air, Jolt Virus immediately following. Thunderer abruptly changed direction and charged back down with all his speed, keeping his arms outstretched and his blades pointed at the Jolt Virus. Upon contact, Thunderer's blades disappeared into the Jolt Virus, and Thunderer just flew through it. Thunderer landed on the ground, suddenly turned around to see Jolt Virus licking his lips again and cackled.

Thunderer

So, you absorb my electrical energy, physical attacks are not very effective on you... Noted.

Thunderer stood up straight and just crossed his arms, looking at Jolt Virus.

Thunderer

I refuse to feed you!

Jolt Virus was annoyed by this, he released a small bolt of lightning, which hit Thunderer in the chest, but it had no effect. Jolt Virus was even more annoyed by this, he flew in and hit Thunderer in the stomach with his whole body. Thunderer falls to the ground and coughs, after a few seconds he catches his breath.

Thunderer

Your physical attacks are effective... I was hoping I wouldn't have to find this out early in the tournament.

Thunderer spread his arms and flew slightly into the air, as black storm clouds gathered around him, Jolt Virus chased after him, but Thunderer flew around the island, hundreds of lightning bolts descending every moment and hitting Thunderer directly. He didn't seem to be doing anything with that energy, just hoarding it, and the Jolt Virus got hungrier with each lightning strike.

After a few minutes of playing cat and mouse, the final lightning that hit Thunderer caused his physical state to change, he also became a living electrical energy, he grabbed the Jolt Virus and they began to steal energy from each other, electricity was circulating to everyone sides, as two living energies hovered in the air, trying to extinguish each other. Jolt Virus moved away abruptly, while Thunderer slowly approached him. Jolt Virus landed on the ground and Thunderer knelt next to him, returning to his human form he placed his hand on Jolt Virus.

Thunderer

My ability has grown stronger over the years, because of all the traumas I've experienced, it feeds on my emotions, when you took my energy from me, you also took my fear and pain. I'm honestly sorry I manipulated you into that.

Thunderer began to absorb electricity from the Jolt Virus, until the Jolt Virus was transported out of the arena.

INT. VIP room, day

Ultrius

I have told you he is special.

Choicemaker

I can see that, I'm more interested in how he will deal with my stronger champions later.

Ultrius

You had a brute in there earlier. What do you have that's better than that.

Choicemaker

HA! The guy who beat him in his universe.

Round 4 of PMT

Ultrius

The superhero family business, Fuse originally got his name because of his fragile fuse, but after coming to terms with his father's death, you could say he completely changed, he became compassionate, but don't let that fool you with his precise eyesight, no one she is not safe from his opponents.

Choicemaker

And this opponent of his, we have the Artificial Intellectual techno organic man himself, A.T.O.M. Fun fact, in his universe, he singles handedly was responsible for this event called Y2K. To keep it short, he nearly put the whole world in a digital panic, before backing out of such plan. Best part is his world still don't know who was responsible.

Ultrius

We will have to censor this in editing...

INT. Arena, day

A.T.O.M and Fuse get teleported into arena. The arena was transformed into a miniature western cowboy town, with houses, a tavern, and a water tower.

A.T.O.M

It looks like you have the advantage here.

Fuse

I realize I'm dressed as a cowboy, but I'm not that old my friend, this superhero mantle is passed down from generation to generation, I'm much younger than the cowboy era.

A.T.O.M

Regardless, this is a seemingly technology-free place, which means I have nothing to use.

Fuse

Do you mind if I ask what's the matter with you? Are you a robot? Program? AI? A man who controls the robot body?

A.T.O.M

I don't mind, I'm an AI, who during the advancement of technology designed my own physical body.

Fuse

Cool, are you good at video games?

A.T.O.M paused for a second, shocked by the question.

A.T.O.M

I can neither say that I am nor that I am not. I never played video games. Never found a reason to, and honestly never really had anyone to play. Yeah, I've had company in my life, but not really in that sort of hobby.

Fuse

Friend, this is very strange, I did not expect it to be like this. I don't know you; I'm seeing you for the first time, you're not my enemy, and we're getting ready to fight.

A.T.O.M

I understand. Regardless of the outcome, remember this is for charity, do your best, and let's give the people watching us a good show.

Fuse nodded and then smiled and sharpened his vision, he took out his two pistols and pointed them at A.T.O.M. A.T.O.M originally didn't react, but the moment Fuse pulled the trigger, A.T.O.M created a nanite shield in front of him that blocked the bullets. Fuse quickly replaced the cartridges on his weapon and fired two more rounds, explosive this time, they didn't penetrate A.T.O.M's shield, but they did make him take a few steps back. Fuse used this to fire a few more rounds, which A.T.O.M. dodged from, sand from the explosions flew on both characters. Fuse quickly changed the cartridges on both guns, but he took them from different pockets. Fuse stretched out his left hand and aimed straight at A.T.O.M, the bullets were technological, full of viruses, intended for fighting someone like A.T.O.M. A.T.O.M. realized immediately the moment three bullets were fired at him, while he was trying to avoid those three bullets, the fourth bullet hit him in the foot. A.T.O.M looked at Fuse and saw that the fourth bullet was fired from another stand, which Fuse held behind his back, he immediately remembered that Fuse had taken the bullets for that gun out of another pouch. The fact that the ice began to expand and wrap around A.T.O.M.'s leg only confirmed that those bullets were not lethal to him. Fuse fired three more rounds, freezing A.T.O.M.'s arms and legs. Fuse was slowly approaching him, a gun with lethal bullets spinning in his hand. A.T.O.M. slowly and calmly waited for Fuse to approach him, then Fuse brought his gun closer to A.T.O.M.'s forehead.

Fuse

They will get you out before bullet makes any damage, right?

A.T.O.M.

I think they will. That's what it looked like in the previous bouts.

Fuse

If someone ever makes multiplayer game which works across multiverse,
I'll be glad to teach you how to play it.

A.T.O.M.

Thank you. And I do hope this doesn't change your mind.

Fuse noticed the ice melting from A.T.O.M.'s hands, he tried to quickly pull the trigger, but A.T.O.M. swung his hand and knocked the pistol out of Fuse's hands, breaking ice in the process. Then he suddenly rose from the ground, breaking the ice and hitting Fuse in the chest. Fuse falls to the ground and A.T.O.M quickly kicks Fuse's other pistol.

Fuse

Ice was never a problem for you, was it?

A.T.O.M

I couldn't let you hit me with the virus, when I saw you pulled out different bullets for the other pistol. I had to bluff and take my chances as you approached me.

Fuse

Yeah... By the way, I'm not that stupid to fight you in hand-to-hand combat, I can see that I don't stand a chance... Can you make it painless?

A.T.O.M

I can. It was nice to meet you Fuse and I look forward to our gaming session.

A.T.O.M. turned his fist into an arm cannon and locked onto Fuse's face. With Fuse making an astonished face of comical panic. Right as he was about to fire, Fuse was teleported out of the arena.

A.T.O.M.

I hope they'll let me explain to him I wasn't gonna fire full charge.

Round 5 of PMT

Ultrius

Most of his past is a mystery, even to me. Horokos, a user of dark magic opened the Paranormal Action Agency to gather for his deeds. He draws his power from a dark source, the monster Kachula, who lives in Horokos.

Choicemaker

And his opponent, we have the manipulator of matter and transmutation, a walking radioactive freak, a bioterrorist with the goal of reshaping the world, and apparently an admirer of Shakespeare and opera, Dr. Phantom.

INT. Arena, day

Horokos and Dr. Phantom gets teleported into Arena, which took a shape of underground cave, with stone pillars hanging from the top, a small spring of water, which flows down the wall like a waterfall and passes into a small pond. The only source of light was the crystals, of various colors, which were placed all over the cave.

Horokos took a good look at Dr. Phantom, it bothered him that Dr. Phantom was wearing a mask, because he couldn't see his expression, but from his posture he guessed that Dr. Phantom was determined to win.

Horokos

Somehow, I suspect that you are not here for charity reasons.

Dr. Phantom

I can say the same about you.

Horokos forms his magical staff, while Dr Phantom forms waves of energy around himself. Neither of them attacks first, both wait to study their opponent, seeing who makes the first move.

Horokos

Animae inimicorum meorum custodiant me.

Dozens of ghosts, exhausted souls emerge from the ground and begin to circle Horokos. Dr. Phantom doesn't seem intrigued by that. He fired a small amount of energy from his fingertips at the right of Horokos. The blow was absorbed by one of the ghosts circling around the Horokos.

Dr. Phantom

I must admit, you didn't look like a coward to me.

Horokos

Call it what you want.

Horokos stretched his hand forward, all the souls rushed towards Dr. Phantom, which made Dr. Phantom jump back a few steps, and regained his posture with confidence. Horokos quickly regained his ghosts and smiled.

Horokos

Talking about bravery...

Dr. Phantom

You're playing games, wizard. You are here to win a trivial tournament, while I am here to study the abilities of beings from other worlds. An opportunity I intend to take advantage of. And I am so far not impressed. I have the power to reshape matter and elements to my liking, while you perform cheap tricks.

Horokos side-eyed Dr. Phantom, his gaze more serious than before

Horkos

And what after that? Everyone wants something like that at beginning, and when they do what they want, there is nothing but regret and emptiness. I have been there, done that. And you talk too much.

Dr. Phantom slammed his fist into the ground, causing the ground to open in a few places and stone pillars to fall from the ceiling. The Pillars destroyed every ghost that was protecting Horokos, and Horokos created a magical shield that protected him from the falling pillars. Dr. Phantom didn't wait a moment, he immediately fired a large amount of energy towards Horokos. Horokos diverted his shield to protect him, but as the energy and shield collided.

The shield began to crack and the energy went straight through Horokos' stomach, causing him to fall to his knees. Horokos rests on his hand and breathes heavily for a few seconds while his wound regenerates. Dr. Phantom watches it all motionless.

Dr. Phantom

Such strength, and so little motivation... Disgusting. Although I will say your little regeneration is intriguing. Still simple.

Horokos rises from the ground, his wound still not fully healed, but mostly did.

Horokos

I will show you only a fragment of what my powers do to me. And then tell me if you really want it.

Horokos' eyes turn completely white, his hair begins to float around his head, as if it has lost gravity, while four octopus tentacles emerge from his stomach wound. The tentacles wrap around Phantom's arms, he uses his radioactive energy to fry the tentacles and free himself, which he succeeds in doing, but the tentacles quickly heal and attack again. Dr. Phantom repeated the same process a couple of times and realized that they were just leaving inevitably, he knew he needed a different tactic. So, he decides to attack Horokos directly and ignore the tentacles for the moment. He fired four energy blasts from his hands, two hit his stomach, exactly where the tentacles come out, one hit Horokos heart, and one hit Horokos head. Horokos falls to the ground motionless, the tentacles return to his body and Horokos begins to regenerate. Dr. Phantom took the moment to catch his breath. Horokos rises from the ground. Dr. Phantom doesn't hesitate and runs towards Horkos, grabbing him by the neck. His burning hands cause pain to Horkos.

Dr. Phantom

Will you just die?!

Horokos (Struggling to breath)

I hope so, eternal life is just a curse. You beat Katchula, I must admit that you are much stronger than I originally thought.

Dr. Phantom fires another energy beam point blank at Horkos's head, but Horkos manages to break free and dodge the attack.

Horokos

Your hands are shaking. You seem to be running out of energy. It's a shame, you're a worthy opponent, I'm sure if the circumstances were different, you'd have the upper hand.

Dr. Phantom (Looking at his hands shaking.)

How is this happening?

Horkos

A "simple" spell, but effective in draining the power of my enemies.

Horokos raises his hand and chains emerge from the ground, enveloping Dr. Phantom, he uses his physical strength to break and free himself from the chains. Dr. Phantom jumped and approached Horokos, releasing a large amount of energy, which left visible burns on Horokos' left shoulder. Horokos screamed in pain and casually pushed Phantom away from him with his right hand. Horokos suddenly came back with a fist to Horokos face, Horokos returned the blow with his staff to Dr. Phantom's back, both fighters took a few steps away from each other. Dr. Phantom knew that his energy had weakened, there was no way to recharge here, his only way to win was through physical attacks.

Horokos, now injured and exhausted, his wounds slowly healing, knew he mustn't let Dr. Phantom get close to him again.

Horokos

So, tell me about that world you want to reshape.

Dr. Phantom

I will, after I put you down.

Dr. Phantom ran towards Horokos again, Horokos created chains from the ground again, this time behind Dr. Phantom. Dr. Phantom turned and grabbed the chains with one hand, Horokos swung his magic staff, but Dr. Phantom grabbed the staff with his other hand.

Horokos

Sit tibi dolor, quem fecisti mihi, reddatur tibi.

The staff turned into a skeleton hand, which grabbed Dr. Phantom's head, his mask begins to crack, as the skeleton hand grips, Dr. Phantom is teleported out of the arena, and Horokos, injured, leans against a rock.

Horokos

This was much harder than I expected.

INT. Room 1 at inter-dimensional colosseum. Day

Horokos gets teleported back into room, with new clothes in his hands. Cosmic Tomato and Professor immediately jumped off the couch and approached Horokos.

Tomato

Man, you've been amazing, keep it up and you'll go far.

Professor

Too bad there's no betting on this, I'd put all my money on you.

Horokos

Don't exaggerate, the fight was hard and exhausting, but nothing special happened.

Horokos emphasized "nothing special happened."

Fox

Anyways, it looks like I'm fighting next... And I am fighting an alien... great, can I only once get one easy fight?

Round 6 of PMT

Ultrius

From Imaginary-Verse we have Desert Fox, originally, he didn't want to be in this business, but he was dragged into it. He got his name when he pretended to be dead for hours in the desert and survived an alien invasion. He is skilled with machines and technology, he himself claims that he can understand them.

Choicemaker

And his opponent, we have a fighter who's literally out of this world. Well technically the current one she's in, but you get it. A princess of a beetle race of insectoids, from the Planet Arthropoda, Herculean. She ended up on earth after escaping her captors in space and crash landed on the little planet of Earth. Now she makes her day by fighting villainy along with new friends.

INT. Arena, day

Herculean and Desert Fox are teleported into an arena that took the form as city block, with streets and buildings raising from the ground.

Herculean gets into a fighting stance but takes note of her opponent.

DesertFox

Well, you're a big, interesting fella?

Herculean

Excuse me!

DesertFox

Oh, you're female! Uh, sorry about that.

Herculean looks around.

Herculean

Really! This is my opponent. I thought this was a fight, I don't feel comfortable snapping a -

Desert Fox is gone, nowhere in sight.

Herculean

Wait, what? Where'd you go?

Herculean hear a little beeping and looks down. A little robot stops blinking and an explosion goes off.

Desert Fox (from a distance)

Hmph, never take your eyes off your opponent.

He looks around the corner and sees a large chunk of concrete heading his way. He dives to the side and dodges the projectile. He looks back and sees an angry Herculean flying towards him.

Herculean

Oh, you're gonna get it now!

Desert Fox

Oh boy!

Desert Fox takes off setting more gadget traps to slow down Herculean. Each with no veil. Herculean continues her pursuit of Fox, continuously losing him and finding him as he continues setting off his gadgets onto her.

One of Desert Fox's gadgets catches Herculean and holds her in place. Desert Fox approaches her with his stick held out.

DesertFox

All things come to an end, but hey, you made an awesome challenge for me. I thank you for that.

Just then Herculean grabs his stick and breaks out of her restraints with ease.

Herculean

And I thank you for finally getting close.

She yanks the stick out of his hand and whacks Fox in the head with hit, making him fall on his butt. Desert Fox is then teleported out of the arena. Leaving Herculean in disgust.

INT. VIP room, Day

Choicemaker

Oh, come on that was bogus! We could've seen more than that!

Ultrius

I'm inclined to agree with you on this.

Round 7 of PMT

Ultrius

From the Imaginary-Verse comes a man who wanted to become a superhero as a grandfather, his role model was Thunderer. His wish came true when one day a cosmic seed fell from space into the garden of his farm and later, he ate it, which gave him power, and even more, he got another boost, a different type of cosmic power, through Aladdin's lamp. Cosmic Tomato ladies and gentlemen.

Choicemaker

And his opponent, she is a celebrity in her own right (Choicemaker makes gun gesture with his fingers and "shoots" in his mouth). We got Cherry Pixie. Self-made internet sensation that didn't take the best turn, so she got a dose of wings sprouting and energy balls from a batch of utter hatred. This should be interesting.

INT. Arena, day

Cosmic Tomato and Cherry Pixie got teleported in arena, Laki (Tomato) waved at Pixie with a smile, but when she didn't return it. So, he stuck out his tongue and started taunting her.

Cherry Pixie flew into the air.

Cherry Pixie

Let's get one thing straight you loser, I'm the star of this show and your gonna-

Cosmic Tomato held out both of his arms, Aiming his fingers like guns.

Tomato

Maximum power!

Cherry Pixie

Eh?!

A large amount of energy flew out from Laki's fingers, so powerful that the camera shook and lost the image for a second, when the image returned to the screens, Laki was surrounded by dust and the destroyed arena in front of him. He couldn't help but laugh.

Tomato

I'm making this tournament look easy like a game.

INT. VIP room, day

Choicemaker

Hey that's not fair. Your guy has cosmic power already on him. I protest this.

Ultrius

You got one champion that has cosmic power too, let alone she's powered by a Celestiangel.

Choicemaker got quiet.

Ultrius

Yes, I know about those. So, if anyone has an unfair advantage it is you.

Choicemaker

Jokes on you, cuz technically that Celestiangel can't really do much and has no grounds of getting us in trouble from, "higher positions." Besides I took precautions, if just her powers that are used, not the full extents. Which I trust you were planning on doing to, were you? Ultrius grunts.

Ultrius

Well, I guess we got terms then, don't we?

Choicemaker

Look at it this way, things will still be interesting.

Ultrius

Something we agree on.

Choicemaker

Except next time, let's make sure the match doesn't end quickly like that again. The one before was bad enough. But this!

Ultrius

Once again, I agree. I'll figure it out later.

INT. A room in an inter-dimensional coliseum. Day

Horokos watched the VIP room, leaning back on the couch after seeing the argument between Ultrius and Choicemaker. Fortune cookie noticed Horokos behavior, she lightly elbowed the Professor in the ribs, after which the Professor gestured with his finger to make him unresponsive, after which Fortune Cookie noticed the serious expressions on Thunderer and Infinity's faces as they looked at the screen showing the Cosmic Tomato as he rejoiced.

Fortune Cookie seemed to swallow a lump in her throat, ran a hand through her hair which Mordecai noticed and just frowned.

Mordecai

Valentina, aren't you excited? Laki easily made it further into the competition.

Valentina seemed to panic.

Cookie

Yes, I mean no, in a way... I'm afraid that everything will be more difficult from now on, we don't know the opponent, nor how strong he is.

Thunderer straightened abruptly as he sat on the chair, slipped his hand under his hood, and cleared his throat.

Thunderer

You are a healer, not a fighter, if you want to leave, nobody here will blame you.

Infinity stood up and hugged Fortune Cookie, holding her tightly. Valentina nodded her head.

INT. VIP room, day

Choicemaker

What is that supposed to mean?

Ultrius

She is a strong character but soft hearted, I was hoping she would stay here because her boyfriend and friend are here... but it seems I was wrong.

Choicemaker

Does this happen often?

Ultrius

No, she's usually exposed to life-or-death situations, so there aren't many...

Choicemaker

My question was about whether you often make mistakes?

Ultrius was dumbfounded, he didn't know what to say.

Ultrius

Look at this as surrender, just pick one of yours to move to the next round.

Choicemaker

Do I need to remind you that we are here, after all, for entertainment, I don't see any entertaining in surrendering. Because of this mistake, your next fighter will fight against my two fighters.

INT. Room 1 in inter-dimensional colosseum, day

Ultrius appears in the room in front of his champions.

Ultrius

Very bad news guys, we are one fighter short now, next match will be 1 v 2.

Masaro

It's ridiculous, we were left without one fighter, that should happen to their team too, don't put us in a match that we will surely lose.

Tomato gets teleported back in room, after he saw everyone, his smile changed to worried face.

Tomato

What is going on?

Professor

Not much, your girlfriend just gave up and we are about to get punished for that.

Tomato

Baby, why? You saw what I did, right? We got this!

Valentina

This is not something that gives me pleasure like you do.

Masaro

THAT IS SOMETHING YOU SHOULD SAY BEFORE AGREEING TO THIS!

Cosmic energy swirls around Tomato's hands

Tomato

Keep your voice down when you are talking to her!

Thunderer gets up from his chair and puts his hand on Tomato's shoulder.

Thunderer

Relax everyone, you literally have no reason to fight. This is a friendly fight after all.

Masaro

Tell that to the big lug who tried to drown me.

Horokos

Same with my last opponent. And who knows what two guys they'll bring in.

Thunderer

Alright, I'll fight two for god's sake, it wouldn't be my first time.

Horokos

No, you are not, I will fight, I am sure that I will win, and I will read the opponent better.

Ultrius

It is weird seeing you get so involved in something as insignificant as this. And didn't you just say your last opponent was rough?

Horokos

I'll be fine.

Thunderer

He knows how much I love crossovers, so he doesn't want to see me out so early.

Professor

You can bribe me, and I will gladly take the hit.

Infinity

None of us will enter such a fight, I want to see the official rule book for this kind of tournament. You brought us here without any special explanation and it seems to me that you are just making up the rules along the way.

Ultrius snapped his fingers and the Fortune cookie teleported out of the room.

Ultrius

You don't even bother to cooperate, do you?

Professor

It's all good, I can tell, don't worry buddy.

Infinity

So, who is going to fight?

Masaro

You and Thunderer are off the table, two of you are powerhouses, we can't risk losing you this early.

Professor

Same thing for Horokos.

Mordecai

I will do it.

Professor

Why? You're old and frail, don't fight... before you include me in your will.

Mordecai

Think about it, if I lose, they will say old man lost, no one will care, if I win, that is going to make some noise.

INT. Room 2 in inter-dimensional colosseum, day.

Choicemaker

Heeeyy, everybody. 411 check. How's Pixie?

Valiant

Ranting and complaining like it's the end of the world.

Cosmaya

It's the nature of the Cosmic Force to have a sense compassion. But, yeesh!

Valiant

This isn't new, but definitely a different level.

Choicemaker

Cool, anyway, great news people. Next match is a 2v1 match.

Phoenix Fighter

Please explain how that is great news?

Choicemaker

Cuz two of you will fight against one on the other side.

Sparkwave

That doesn't seem fair.

Choicemaker

Please please please, it's all agreed upon. Beside one of their guys chickened out anyway, and the show must go on.

Valiant

Sounds illogical. I'm out.

Phoenix Fighter

Same.

The other heroes also don't feel comfortable and start displaying their disagreeing. Choicemaker was getting frustrated hearing and seeing the rejections.

Prismattack

HA! Bunch of pansies. I'll take the gig.

Choicemaker is gleeful at the volunteer, even more so when the second one steps in.

Majunga Khan

I will too. I must have some battle. Besides I'm tired of the brat's whining.

The heroes get on their feet in astonishment.

Sparkwave

Nah uh! No way! These guys will just hurt the guy more than needs to.

Choicemaker

What part of precautions taken did you not get? You know what, don't answer that. Kind've expected YOU not to understand. So, WE HAVE our match.

The heroes look at the two villains, as the two smirked.

Prismattack

Oh, don't worry, we'll make sure he's still breathing.

Majunga Khan

And we'll make it last.

Both Sparkwave and Phoenix Fighter are not happy and scowled. Choicemaker then snaps his fingers. He and his two combatants are teleported out of the room.

INT. Arena, day

Mordecai, Majunga Khan and Prismattack get teleported into arena.

INT. Room in inter-dimensional colosseum, day.

Thunderer looks worried for Mordecai as he took notice of two unfriendly opponents he's facing. He looks over to Sparkwave in his room. Still unable to hear him but Sparkwave's gestures suggest Mordecai opponents are not good news.

Thunderer

Horokos, I'm sorry, but I'm not going to put up with this... Laki, it's time.

Tomato opened a portal into which Thunderer, Infinity, Horkos, Professor, Cosmic Tomato and Massaro jumped.

INT. Arena, day

Behind Mordecai, all remaining champions from Imaginary-verse appeared.

INT. VIP room. Day

Choicemaker rose to his feet, while Ultrius sat in horror watching what was happening.

Choicemaker

What the! Hey! They are ruining the tournament!

INT. Arena, day

Horokos

We are done playing games by your rules Ultrius.

Infinity

And stop talking about charity, we all know there's something bigger behind this.

INT. Room 2 in inter-dimensional colosseum, day.

Herculean

Hey! Check this out. Guess the other side wasn't gonna put up with this and went rogue. Nice.

Sparkwave

Should we join them?

A.T.O.M.

I'm guessing we don't have anyone in our team who can transfer us there.

Phoenix Fighter

It's better this way, I wouldn't want our universe to win us in an unfair fight. Especially with villains representing us.

Crimzon Mask

Best to just let it be.

Sparkwave

Well, Let's see how entertaining this will be.

Everyone looks at Sparkwave with awkwardness.

Sparkwave

Oh, come on! You're all thinking it!

INT. Arena, day

Majunga Khan threw a knife at Mordecai, then Professor put his hand in front of Mordecai and deflected the knife.

Professor

This one is mine. Besides, I detect a little bit of ugly magic from this guy.

Professor cracks his mechanical knuckles, and Majunga Khan pulls out a Runga Club. Preparing a showdown.

Infinity

I didn't have a chance to fight, I'll take the purple one.

Infinity charges at Prismattack, grappling him as both struggle against each other's strengths.

Thunderer, Horokos, Tomato, Masaro and Mordecai move to the side, not interfering in the fights.

INT. VIP room, day

Ultrius

Let's not make trouble until the first round is over, okay?

Choicemaker

It won't work like that, we worked hard to organize this, I won't allow some random champions to make decisions in our tournament.

Ultrius

I'll punish them later. For now, enjoy the fight that follows.

Choicemaker

Ultrius, are you afraid of them? From the very beginning, they are plotting and questioning you, and you just listen and ignore it. This is not the tournament you promised me or the tournament we promised our viewers.

Ultrius

You said so yourself. Make things interesting.

Choicemaker

Oh! You want interesting. I'll give you interesting.

Choicemaker snaps his fingers.

INT. Arena, day

As Professor was fighting Majunga Khan and Infinity was taking on Prismattack, the other bystanders observe in their own entertainment. Things change when 5 lights appeared in the arena, from it 5 new participants shown. Lady Siren, Black Thorn, Varrick Evans, Dr. Centipede, and Tower Tyrant from the Crimzon-Verse.

The Crimzon-Verse heroes are in shock to see what is going on.

INT. VIP room, day

ULtrius

What do you think you're doing?

Choicemaker

What? I merely leveled out the playing field. Makes good for interesting ratings.

Ultrius

Then why did you send out the rest of the villains?

Choicemaker

Because the heroes are being party poopers. And besides, what's a hero without the bad guys. Let's see if your guys can do what my guys were able to do.

Ultrius

Grrrr!

INT. Arena, day.

Every villain took their stance as did the heroes. But things took a surprise when the dwarf sized person called Tower Tyrant made a roar and suddenly transformed into a 30-foot-tall metal armored giant. Some of the villains flinched at this but were still unnerved, even excited.

Masaro

To quote that big blue guy I fought before, this just became a huge problem.

Tomato

Guys, binge watching Attack on titan will finally pay off... Someone please record this.

Weeds sprout from Tomato's belt and wraps around Tower Tyrant, Tomato launched himself at Tower Tyrant, but Tower Tyrant knocked him unconscious with one swing of his arm. Tomato was left hanging attached and unconscious to the Tower Tyrant.

Tower Tyrant

Tremble in terror, of TOWER TYRANT!

Masaro

Wait, our strongest hero was defeated just like that.

Mordecai

He is strong, but clumsy.

Prismattack

Looks like things just played into our favor.

Dr. Centipede

That's the big guy for you. Fine specimen he is. But I'm curious about these new fleshies before us.

Black Thorn

Hmmm, he may have a mask, but I can tell the handsomeness in that one. Leave him for me.

Black Thorn eyeballs Thunderer, the hero clearly feeling uncomfortable at her gaze. He looks over to Infinity but is relieved she didn't notice. He already knew how she would feel about this.

Majunga Khan

Let's begin the slaughter.

Lady Siren

Let's.

Varrick Evans

Ooooooh, I see the cameras rolling, I see things going out of order, it's quite the perfect amount on chaos. Lights, cameras, aaaaaaaand ACTION!

The villains begin their charge on the heroes.

Thunderer

Infinity, save Laki and take care of giant. Professor, I know you were fighting the shaman guy, but we may need you to take care of this centipede machine. Masaro you go berserker mode.

Masaro

That's what I wanted to hear from the beginning.

Professor

Sure, have the guy with mechanical body fight a dude with mechanical parts.

Horokos

Do you want someone else?

Professor

Nope, I'm fine with it.

Thunderer

Just hold them off while Horokos and I gather some energy, our fighting has really worn us out.

Masaro jumped over Lady Siren, who tried to counter with a sonic scream attack. Next to him Professor tackled Dr. Centipede to the ground, keeping his bladed weapons away from him. Infinity flew above them and with her energy blast cut the sprout which held the Tomato attached to the Tower Tyrant. The giant then started roaring and swinging his arms clumsily as Infinity caught Tomato and got him away from Tower Tyrant. At the same time Prismattack continued his assault on Infinty, almost hitting her with an energy blast of his own. Thunderer took on Black Thorn but kept his distance due to her poison spikes. Things became harder for him when Majunga Khan jumped in and nearly whacked Thunderer in the head with his club. Horkos summons his staff and begins an enchantment, only to be struck with a rock to his head. He rubs his head and sees Varrick Evans pointing his finger and laughing at him.

Horkos

It had to be the lunatic.

INT. Room 2 in inter-dimensional colosseum, day.

Characters react to what is going on.

Sparkwave

Ok, this is not right. We need to do something.

A.T.O.M.

If only we could. This barrier is strong and secure. Not so easily breakable.

Herculean

Out of the way.

Herculean charges at the barrier with a powerful double left punch. But did not even make a crack. She then continues a barrage of punches to no vale.

Phoenix Fighter

Save your energy, clearly, we can do nothing. But let's have a little faith.

Crimzon Mask

Faith in what?

Phoenix Fighter

That they can defeat those villains. If we can, so can they.

There heroes step back and watch in hope for the Imaginary-Verse heroes to succeed.

INT. Arena, day

Thunderer uses his electricity to shield himself from Black Thorn and Majunga Khans projectile poison attacks. As the two villains decide to charge at Thunderer from both sides with bladed weapons, he charges and projects a thunderbolt on himself, electrocuting the two villains and knocking them out. He looks over at Prismattack who is reflecting Infinity's attacks as she is also struggling against Tower Tyrant.

Thunderer

Professor, switch opponents with Infinity, he has the advantage by deflecting her attacks.

Thunderer took notice at Masaro defeating Lady Siren.

Thunderer

Masaro, take on Tower Tyrant, I'll join you. Horokos, can you deal with Varrick Evans?

Horkos

What do you think I'm doing. Guy's being a pest.

Varrick Evans laughs maniacally as he plays cat and mouse with Horkos. Much to his annoyance. Thunderer goes to check on Cosmic Tomato who is regaining consciousness.

Thunderer

Laki, are you ok?

Tomato

Uuhgh. I'm ok. Can someone get that truckers license number?

Thunderer

Focus! If you can, take on Centipede.

Tomato

I'll do my best Thunderer.

Professor knocks back Dr. Centipede and runs to aid Infinity. Dr. Centipede tries to chase after him but is intercepted by Laki.

Dr. Centipede

I'll dissect that head of yours and see what your anatomy is like.

Tomato (gawking in surprise)

That's just outright messed up on so many levels!

Infinity is knocked to the ground by Tower Tyrant as he and Prismattack look to finish her off.

Prismattack

I'm not all too fond with finishing off a beautiful gal. So, I'll let the big guy do it.

Tower Tyrant lifts his foot up, ready to squash Infinity. Before he can, Tower Tyrant is pushed back by a large fire stream by Masaro. Prismattack is distracted and tackled by Professor.

Infinity

THANK YOU! This guy has already started to annoy me.

Professor

I got this guy. Help hot head.

Infinity flies over to aid Masaro against Tower Tyrant. Professor then squares off against Prismattack.

Prismattack

So, you switch out a powerhouse with a tin man, against a diamond hard playa. Not smart on your part.

Prismattack charges at Professor, preparing to strike with his sharp-edged arm. The arm is intercepted by Professor who strikes his own punch to Prismattack's jaw. The blow staggers the villains as Professor performs a hard shoulder tackle, knocking Prismattack off his feet.

Professor

That's Mr. Tin Man to you.

Infinity and Masaro lay into Tower Tyrant with energy bolts and flames. Tower Tyrant staggers back trying to protect his head from the attacks.

Tower Tyrant

TOWER TYRANT WIL DESTROY YOU ALL!

He lets out a roar before attempting a charge at the heroes. Masaro unleashes a huge fire ball at the villain's face causing him to disorient. Infinity follows with a powerful energy blast at the same spot, causing the giant to slowly fall backwards.

Masaro

Big guy is going down...

Tower Tyrant falls with a hard thud.

Horokos is looking at Thunderer as he sees the other heroes organized.

Thunderer

What? I think I gave you easy fight until you recover.

Horokos

Your grandfather. Just to think he was a leader and commanded us all, it made us believe he was a leader.

Thunderer

I have no intention to do that, it is too much responsibility.

Horokos

He was best leader Elites had, try to follow his steps.

Thunderer

I'll try. Were you able to deal with your villain?

Horkos

Are you kidding? That guy was just a maniac with no real fighting capabilities.

Thunderer

So easy win for you?

Horkos

The little punk ran off. Not sure where he'd go, but I'm guessing he knows he can do nothing against us.

Their conversation was interrupted by Infinity, who had been thrown and flew between them. She gets up from the ground and wipes the dust from her face.

Infinity

While you two have a lovely conversation, the rest of us come here fighting, 3 v 7. And they're not exactly easy.

Thunderer

Sorry honey, we will join you.

Masaro and Infinity were once again struggling taking on Tower Tyrant. Both once again laid into the giant, and the tides turn when Horkos and Thunderer joined in. Horkos cast a spell that created large chains and held Tower Tyrant in place.

As the villain struggled Thunderer landed on his head. Like before, he charges his electrical power and summons a huge thunderbolt on top of himself and the giant villain. Tower Tyrant falls to the ground unconscious, his body shrinks back to his normal size, a 4-foot-tall dwarf with an oversized head. Opposite him stands Masaro, in his flame form, but most of his fire is extinguished and broken, revealing Masaro's normal state underneath. Blood pours down Masaro's forehead, over his eye, he's breathing hard and rocking left and right, implying that this fight was far more difficult for him than the first. The Professor was able to throw a final strong punch at Prismattack and knocked him unconscious. The professor moves his shirt and discovers that Prismattack made a hole in his chest area with his sharpened edge arm, there were a couple of broken wires, which the Professor immediately began to connect.

Professor

Oh well, my insurance expired two days ago.

Tomato was struggling in his fight with Dr. Centipede, his vines he'd create would be instantly shredded by the villains many blades. Before he could get close to Tomato, Infinity knocked him back with a large amount of her energy. Damaging the villain's body and making him unable to continue.

Infinity

Are you ok?

Tomato

Sorry, I'm used to fighting with my team. I relied on them too much that now solo fights are hard for me if I stretch them out. I attack and wait for Immortalem and Kaculee to jump on him from behind, I guess it's some kind of reflex.

Infinity smiled.

Infinity

Everything is fine, know that we have your back too.

Tomato

Thank you.

Black Thorn, apparently still active, came out of nowhere and tried to jump Tomato, but Masaro from distance shot a fire ball at the villain. It wasn't powerful, but enough to engulf Black Thorn in flames, once they died down, she let out a last smoky breath before she fell unconscious. Tomato turned to Masaro and Masaro just winked at him. All the villains were defeated, and the heroes gathered around to check on each other.

Thunderer

I'm not going to lie, if we weren't all here and had the opportunity to change opponents and help each other and consider what kind of opponents were here, this would be a damn hard fight, and they made us suffer a lot like this.

Mordecai

Easy for you to say, I practically did nothing.

From behind Mordecai, Varrick Evans appears suddenly with a blunt object in hand about to hit Mordecai. The heroes took notice to late but were not able to do anything. Before the fatal blow connected, Mordecai quickly stepped back and elbowed Varrick Evans in the stomach. The villain staggered, and Mordecai finished it with a back punch, knocking out the villain.

Mordecai

Not to satisfactory, but it'll do.

The heroes sighed in relief. Thunderer looks up and sees the Crimzon-Verse heroes cheering and clapping. In a split second they were teleported out of the arena.

INT. Room in inter-dimensional colosseum, day.

Ultrius teleports himself and remaining champions of Imaginary-verse in room where they were before they joined arena, all of them are ready to fight. Thunderer looked to the side and through the glass he could see Sparkwave who was trying to say something, but the glass was blocking the sound. Choicemaker popped into their room and the heroes already confronted him. Thunderer turns back and sees Professor has already started on against Ultrius.

Ultrius

Since when?

Professor

Right from the beginning.

Ultrius

And it was strange to me that you were doing this for free.

Thunderer

Ultrius, that's enough playing, what is this tournament really about.

Ultrius sighed.

Ultrius

You really didn't need to do this.

Tomato

That is my queue to dip.

Tomato opens a portal and jumps into it, Ultrius looks at the portal in confusion.

Ultrius

What are you on about? Why all this? I did not blackmail you. You are here at your own free will. All the defeated champions were returned to their homes, safe.

Professor

Yeah, we know that Infinity gave the Fortune Cookie tracker, she contacted us, also told us that there is no way to get to us.

Thunderer

Last time when I met Sparkwave, I had to go around Infinite multiverse curve. Which means that you and that Choicemaker went to great lengths to organize this, why?

Ultrius

I'm doing this for greater good, crisis you can't even understand...

Infinity

So, this is some kind of test?

Ultrius

Everything is... I need to be sure that you are ready before I put you in that fight.

(Moment of silence).

Horokos

But you refuse to give us more information.

Ultrius

As always, I know about your knowledge of this, without the necessary testing, led to great tragedy.

Tomato jumped out of portal, holding a tube in which a brain was floating.

Tomato

Yo, Professor, is this your brain?

Professor

Checkmate!

Ultrius is visibly upset.

Ultrius

He is only here to keep your body functioning normally! STOP MAKING A VILLAIN OUT OF ME!

Mordecai

But you are a villain, did you forget what you did to my comrades?
Alola, Sir Efaró...

Ultrius

It was a mistake and I have been trying to correct it since then, every act of mine was related to the atonement of my sins.

Mordecai clenched his fist, veins appearing on his neck and his face flushed as he turned to Ultrius in anger.

Mordecai

You sent them to hell!

Ultrius

I'm sorry Mordecai, you suffered enough, it's time for you to rest.

Ultrius snapped his fingers and Mordecai disappeared.

Professor

He... His tracker lost connection; it is not in any of the universes known to us.

Masaro

That's my cue to attack.

Infinity

Masaro! Wait!

Massaro charged at Ultrius with a flaming fist, but Ultrius moved at super speed and pushed Massaro away from him.

Masaro

What was that? Teleportation? Super speed?

Horokos

He can cause time to slow down around him, making himself appear fast.

Professor

But the more people his power captures, the weaker the deceleration/acceleration.

Tomato

That is kinda cool, I'm not gonna lie.

Thunderer

We are all tired and battered, this is not a fight we want to have right now.

Ultrius

And what are we going to do now?

Infinity

Could I suggest a negotiation?

Ultrius

I'm listening.

Masaro

You tell us what the hell is going on here!

Tomato

Yeah!

Masaro

Or we are going to kick your ass!

Tomato

Yeah!

Horokos

We cannot do that.

Tomato (Awkwardly)

Hell no!

Professor

Kid, shut up.

Tomato

Sorry, I was trying to hype situation.

Ultrius

Look, the balance of the multiverse is disturbed, I'm trying to fix it, a tournament will be held to choose the guardian of the multiverse. I must find my representatives, my champions, my fighters and together with them restore balance to the multiverse.

Thunderer

It's because of breaking of the Infinite multiverse curves?

Ultrius

Yes, I built those walls between dimensions to prevent leaking, now someone is tearing down those walls for their own personal gain, and I have no power to stop it.

Tomato

Wait, wasn't that what I did when I absorbed the extra cosmic energy?

Thunderer

It's not your fault, I broke the Infinite multiverse curves before when I visited Sparkwave's universe, they already started to weaken then.

Ultrius

They have been weakening for nine years, but the consequences have only been noticeable since a year ago.

Infinity

So, all this is to get us into that multiversal tournament?

Ultrius

It's not a bloody multiversal tournament, it's bigger than that.

Horokos

What about the other observer, and the heroes from the Crimzon-Verse?

Ultrius

He doesn't care that much. His section of the multiverse is a little more secure, if not being handle by other forces. But with him, this really is all fun and games for him.

Professor

What's that supposed to mean?

Ultrius

The bloody snob agreed to help me with this whole thing so long as he can use it for his own form of entertainment. And to entertain his "audience."

Infinity

What audience?

Ultrius

Apparently other obersevers if not some inter-dimensional figures. They don't care what's happening in this part of the multiverse. Only that Choicemaker is giving them something to enjoy on spare time.

Tomato

Interdimensional television. Sounds kind've cool.

Everyone looks at Cosmic Tomato.

Tomato

I said kind've.

Thunderer

Well I don't think the heroes of that dimension are becoming ok with this anymore. Especially after that last stunt with the villains. I took a quick notice of them earlier and I think they are laying it into-

The glass shatters unexpectedly catching the heroes off guard. From it A.T.O.M. flew through and hit the ground. Everyone takes note on what is going on.

Horokos

What the hell just happened?

All characters turn around and see the rest of the Crimzon-verse fighting a vampire like creature, long white hair and strong beads in nanotech armor.

INT. Room 2 in inter-dimensional colosseum, day

Meanwhile in the Crimzon-verse side of the room (5 minutes earlier)

The current heroes surrounded Choicemaker. All clearly upset.

Phoenix Fighter

Ok, I don't care who you are or what this whole tournament is about.
You're taking this way too far!

Valiant

You are lucky the other heroes were able to beat our villains because things could've gotten much worse!

Crimzon Mask

We're done with this!

A.T.O.M.

Finé!

Herculean

Not without busting your golden teeth in!

Choicemaker

Ladies, gents, please. Everything is okay. This is all part of the-

Sparkwave

ENOUGH OF THIS CRAP YOU SKINNY GOLDEN PENCIL-NECKED BUTTHOLE!

Everyone was stunned by Sparkwave's outburst. Choicemaker jaw dropped wide open.

Sparkwave

Send us back, NOW!

Choicemaker stood still before making the room get bigger, along with making himself bigger in size.

Choicemaker

YOU AND WHAT ARMY PINT BRAINS! YOU'RE ON MY TURF SUCKERS, AND WHAT I SAY GOES!

Everyone is suddenly dropped to the floor as if the gravity increased on them.

Choicemaker

HERE'S WHAT WE'RE GONNA DO! WE'RE GONNA FINISH THIS THANG UNTIL THE ENTERTAINMENT SATISFACTION MOJO IS SATISFIED. YOU'RE GONNA PARTICIPATE, AND YOU'RE GONNA ENTERTAIN!

Choicemaker snaps his fingers making everything and himself go back to normal.

Choicemaker

Now that that is settle, hehehe, I've got the next event thought out.

Choicemaker snaps his fingers and instantly spawned what appears to be a cloaked figure with its eyes closed.

Crimzon Mask

What is that?

Choicemaker

This is your next opponent. Don't look like much, but he's an interesting one. One you all can clearly take on. That's right. Next match is you 6 against this guy.

Phoenix Fighter

We told you we're not going to take part in such things.

Choicemaker

Oh hoho! You got no choice. Besides this guy's got big bad vibes to it so just one of you guys isn't enough.

The cloaked figure then began making grunting noises before waking up and starring at everyone.

Cosmaya

Observer! What exactly did you summon?!

Choicemaker

Not sure, but supposedly he causes BIG problems in his world. Vampire-like, with nanotech coursing through his veins, dark magic, all that jazz. I do know he calls himself Lord Von Bludd. Perfect for the event.

The creature almost immediately charged at the heroes but was stopped by Choicemaker.

Choicemaker

Woah! Down boy! See no problem. Now let's get this-

Choicemaker stops as he sees light shimmers coming out of the creatures' feet into the floor. The creature laughs viscously as the surrounding areas begin to malfunction.

Choicemaker

Oh, you think you can be intimidating! Well try this!

Choicemaker snaps his fingers at the creature, but nothing happens. He continues to snap but is confused. His focus is shifted to the surrounding areas as what appears to be tiny glows assimilating with the surrounding areas.

Choicemaker

NONONONONONO! You can't be doing that. You-you should not be able to do that.....Uh oh! WellImgonnaletyouguyshandlethis!

Choicemaker snaps his fingers teleports out of there. Leaving the heroes to deal with the now obvious vampiric creature using what appears to be nano tech manipulation. Before anyone can react, the floors exploded with spikes, causing the heroes to recoil back and through the windows.

A.T.O.M. crashes through the window that leads into the Imaginary-verse room, causing the other heroes to be surprised.

Horkos

What the hell is going on?

A.T.O.M. recovers himself in the air as he looks back in worry of his allies.

Ultrius

Hey! What's going on?

A.T.O.M.

Choicemaker summoned a vampiric entity who appears to be able to manipulate nanotech. And it just went berserk.

Ultrius

Why isn't that wise guy stopping it.

A.T.O.M.

My guess is the vampire sent some type of nano virus that assimilated in the surrounding areas. Therefore, blocking off Choicemaker's ability to warp the surrounding areas, therefore nullifying any affect he or even you can do in this dimension.

Everyone was left in a confused state.

Ultrius

Okay, what exactly do you mean?

As Ultrius asked the other Crimzon-verse heroes were thrown out into the arena along with the Imaginary-verse hearing another explosion that decimated the entire VIP rooms. All heroes and Ultrius are in the arena as the Nano Vampire stands tall from the wreckage it made, cackling.

Professor

My interpretation, we're screwed!

Masaro

I still have some fight left in me!

Masaro in his fire form runs towards vampire, and Herculean follows him.

Herculean

Don't leave me out of this. I've been needing to punch something all day.

Thunderer summons lightning in his hand, and when he was ready to throw it at Lord Von Bludd. Bludd, with his super speed charged himself towards Thunderer, no one except Sparkwave was able to react. Sparkwave lunged and pushed Thunderer away, taking the hit instead. Thunderer's lightning misfired and hit the glass, causing it to crack. A section of the area was destroyed revealing dimensional rifts in them. Lord Bludd paused and took notice of the hundreds of rifts, passageways to other dimensions. His thoughts were interrupted by Crimson Mask who took the opportunity to slashed Lord Bludd in the spine, he took a few steps forward and ran into the Professor's fist which knocked him back. Valiant then flew up and a second before she hit Lord Bludd, he grabbed her arm and threw her aside, Cosmic Tomato was ready to release his cosmic energy, but Lord Bludd approached him with super speed and isolated his arm, causing the cosmic energy to hit Herculean and Masaro and knock them to the ground.

Both Crimzon Mask and Phoenix Fighter threw their kunai knives and Phoenix stars at Lord Bludd, they explode on impact. From the smoke Lord Bludd was unfazed and sent a psychic like shockwave pushing the heroes back. Still holding Cosmic Tomato's hand as he struggled free from Lord Bludd's grip, the vampire raises Tomato up and throws him towards the other heroes, hitting the ground hard.

Professor

This is not good!

Horokos

Ultrius!

Ultrius

I'll see what I can do.

Ultrius teleports out of room.

Phoenix Fighter

Did he really just escape? Without us?

Horkos

Trust me, he has an idea.

Sparkwave runs towards Thunderer.

Sparkwave

Thunderer, we need to stop this.

Thunderer

Max, you are the only one who can match his speed.

Sparkwave

I guess, but what can I do? He easily beat heroes from both our universes.

Thunderer

You're Sparkwave, you can do it, I know it sounds cliché, but you didn't become the hero of Sparkton city for no reason, I've seen you in battle, I know you can do a lot, you just have to believe in yourself, and now we need you to believe, because I believe in you and everyone here depends on you.

A moment of silence, then Sparkwave nodded his head, he looked at Lord Bludd who was fighting Infinity and A.T.O.M., his gaze focused as he ran towards Lord Bludd, followed by a dozen bolts of lightning that Thunderer unleashed after. Lord Bludd just looked at Sparkwave and ducked to the side to avoid the attack, but he didn't notice that he stepped on a Cosmic Tomato plant, which quickly wrapped around his legs. Energy blasts from Infinity and A.T.O.M. were coming at him from one side, with the other Thunderer's lightning, on the third side Masaro's fire ball and Valiant's cosmic rays, on the fourth side Horokos' chains and Tomato's cosmic energy. Even Lord Bludd didn't have time to react, he fell into the trap, all the attacks hit him at the same moment, creating black smoke, which hindered visibility quite a bit. Everyone watched in suspense and prepared for the worst when the smoke cleared, but to everyone's surprise, Sparkwave emerged from the smoke with a large cut on his chest. Sparkwave shook and raved, then fell to the ground and looked like he was having an epileptic fit.

Phoenix Fighter

We need to take him out of there!

Thunderer

Laki!

Tomato

I'm on it!

Cosmic Tomato pulled Sparkwave towards Thunderer, Crimzon Mask and Phoenix Fighter with its roots.

The rest of the smoke cleared and from the spot stood Lord Von Blood. Once again unfazed by their assault. He smirks at them while licking blood from his fingertips. Likely from the cut on Sparkwave. Rather than retaliate, the vampire turns his back on them and walks away. Rather than go after him, the heroes regroup around Sparkave.

Crimzon Mask

What is happening to him?

Thunderer

Laki's power should be healing him.

The professor ran over to Sparkwave.

Professor

Regeneration is trying to kick in, but it seems to be rejecting the foreign body inside it.

Tomato

What does that mean?

Professor

The cosmic energy from your world doesn't equate to the physiology and atomic elements of his world.

Tomato

What does-

Professor

It won't work.

Phoenix Fighter

What can we do?

Professor

If I had the time and my tools, I could easily remove the problem...

But this way we can only hope for the best.

Phoenix Fighter glared at Thunderer, and suddenly punched him in the face.

Phoenix Fighter

You sent him there! You told him that he could do it! LOOK AT HIM

NOW!

Cosmic Tomato charged into Phoenix Fighter and shoved him back protect Thunderer.

Tomato

HEY WHAT'S YOUR DEAL PAL?!

Before Cosmic Tomato could approach Phoenix Fighter, a bladed star was struck right in front of his feet.

Crimzon Mask

I believe he's referring to your friend hyping up Sparkwave to take a dive.

Infinity

Think twice before accusing him of ever looking to sacrifice an ally.

Herculean

I don't recall us ever being allies. We were taken here against our will. But it seems to us your buddy buddy with one of those observer guys.

Masaro

I'd cool it if I were you guys. And that's coming from me.

Things became heated as the heroes of both universes squared off at each other, arguing and ready to fight. Lord Bludd took note of the heroes, since he was no longer the focus of their attention, he decided to focus on his new goal. He approached the glass, which was already cracked, looking at the rifts in the universe and uttered the following words.

Lord Bludd

The entire multiverse, endless possibilities, endless options to build an army in my name. So great that no one will ever even think of sending me back to that Hell again.

As a fight was about to break out, Valiant stepped into the middle and let out a cosmic blast, it didn't do damage, but it caused everyone to stop.

Valiant

ENOUGH! This does not help any of us!

Valiant lowered herself over Sparkwave and asked Cosmic Tomato to step forward.

Valiant

Use your cosmic abilities for healing again.

Cosmic Tomato

It's not gonna work, my powers are essentially different for his body to adjust to.

Valiant

But you are not alone, my powers are like yours, I will regulate it to help him.

Valiant let out a cosmic aura surrounding Sparkwave, Cosmic Tomato then followed with his healing abilities.

Professor

I highly doubt that will w-

The combined cosmic aura caused Sparkwave to glow, after a second his body is fully healed, but he remained unconscious.

Professor

Well, I'll be damned!

Valiant

Never underestimate the power of the cosmic.

Cosmic Tomato

Clearly, I still got some understanding to make.

Valiant

We have a bigger problem that is about to happen, we cannot afford to fight among ourselves.

Everyone looked at each other with dismayed feelings.

Phoenix Fighter

Sorry about attacking you. I just hate to see a fellow comrade get put in danger.

Thunderer

I don't hold it against you. I just trusted Sparkwave's ability to give us an opening. But I never intended on him winding up like this.

Crimzon Mask

The kid is reckless. But I should've known better that he would jump in regardless.

Infinity

I guess we all lost ourselves there.

Everyone calmed down from the shame. But were turned attention to the cackling of Lord Bludd, who looked like he was creating Nano tendrils from the surrounding areas and about to simultaneously sent them to the many rifts.

A.T.O.M.

I detect an assimilating virus in his nano manipulation. It's what he used to take control of this dimension.

Horokos

If he sends those tendrils into other worlds, he's going to simultaneously infect multiple realities at once.

Masaro

How bad are we talking?

Horkos

Multiple...realities!

Masaro

Right!

INT. VIP room, day

The VIP room is in a state of chaos, the monitor is broken and lying on the ground, and the glass is cracked. Choicemaker is sitting on the couch, looking like he's lost his last hope, Ultrius teleported into that room, and Choicemaker immediately stood up and hid his insecurities.

Choicemaker

This is one of the more interesting fights so far.

Ultrius

So far? What the hell were you thinking when you brought Lord Von Bludd into this tournament?

Choicemaker

I just wanted to give the people what they wanted, a damn good fight.
Regardless, Lord Blah Blah-Blah has no chance of using his full abilities here.

Ultrius sighed.

Ultrius

He took control of our security system, he will raise an army of dead champions and thus create a starting army to conquer the multiverse, we just gave him a better chance than he ever had!

Choicemaker

What are you talking about? This arena does not support killing, so there is a safety fuse that teleports champions out of the arena before the fatal blow.

Ultrius

It was introduced recently, since I have been the manager of the tournament, before that it was my brother, and he not only supported, but also suggested killing. Beneath us lie millions of the best fighters this multiverse has to offer.

Choicemaker

...Oh.

Choicemaker lowered his head.

Ultrius

You called me out for my mistakes, but you didn't bother to check the history of the arena or what kind of villain you pulled from the dark dimension. I agreed on your little tournament show, but you went too far with what you brought in for the sake of your "entertainment."

At that moment Lord Bludd broke the glass and jumped out of the colosseum. Both observers took notice on where he was heading as well as the nano tendrils acting on their own towards the rifts. Ultrius began to step forward.

Ultrius

I'm going to do what I can to stop him. I haven't been in a fight for a long time, I expect to get a serious beating.

Choicemaker

What are you doing? We are observers, we are not allowed to interfere in such crises.

Ultrius

Our "observation" started this crisis, as well as many others. I'm sick of the world seeing me as a villain, I'm going to break my oath, no matter what the consequences. You do what you feel you must. Just don't make things worse.

Ultrius spreads his wings and flies over to Lord Blud.

INT. Colosseum Cemetery, day

Lord Bludd paces the graveyard with outstretched arms.

Lord Bludd

I can hear you my soldiers, loud and clear. Your blood was shed for someone else; I share your pain, I will raise you from the dead so that you can once again show your strength and be free in the new world that I am forging.

Ultrius flies above Lord Bludd, and lands in front of him.

Ultrius

I'm here to warn you, give up before things get out of hand!

Lord Bludd

An observer? Are you so afraid of me that you had to interfere, breaking your oaths?

Ultrius

I won't lie, I am.

Lord Bludd

What do you hope to achieve?

Ultrius

I can't live like a coward anymore. And for once I'm going to do something right.

Lord Bludd scoffed, then quickly approached in front of Ultrius, they stood only ten centimeters apart. Now it is clear how much taller and larger Lord Bludd was than Ultrius.

Lord Bludd

You are aware that you have chosen the worst possible ground to fight with me.

Ultrius

I'll be honest, this wasn't my choice.

Lord Bludd pushes Ultrius out of his way and started walking away. Seeing no reason to waste time. But Ultrius puts his wing in front of Lord Bludd.

Ultrius

Stop acting like I don't exist!

Lord Bludd

You are not a threat to me, I avoid meaningless fights, they are just a waste of time and a distraction to my real goal.

Ultrius hits Lord Bludd in the head with his wing and flew away, Lord Bludd just looked at him and threw a blade which stabbed Ultrius in the stomach and knocked him to the ground. Lord Bludd only nodded in disgust and continued walking towards the tombstones. Ultrius grabbed his leg, Lord Bludd kicked Ultrius in the jaw, he reaches down grabbing Ultrius and throws him out of the way. Then he took a blade and cut his own hand so that the blood dripped all over the cemetery. His blood shimmering with nanites in them. Soon the zombified bodies of the dead fighters began to emerge from the ground. Lord Bludd placed his hands behind his back, pushed his way through the crowd and walked back towards the Arena. As Lord Bludd left, Choicemaker materialized next to the injured Ultrius, who sat with his back against the tombstone, blood dripping from his mouth.

Choicemaker

I told you Observers are not meant to interfere in crises. I understand that we have partially found a way to bypass that rule in order to... "entertain" ourselves and thus cause a few problems, but ultimately, we do not have the power to make a change, at least not in the sense that we want. And besides, we may have power, but were not exactly fighters.

Ultrius

In the last few hundred years, we have become troublemakers rather than observers. I may not have been able to make a change, but at least I could buy them some time.

Choicemaker

Time? Is it really that important? Aren't you just delaying the inevitable? Wannabe Drac whooped the heroes, he whooped you, and he didn't even break a sweat.

Ultrius

Sometimes yes, most of the times yes... But sometimes, no, I hope this is one of those cases, because I fear the consequences of our actions. "Our" ...actions.

Chchoicemaker pouted knowing what Ultrius was referring to.

Choicemaker

Uuuuggghhh! Ah, poo. Alright, I understand, I will help to fix this with you.

Choicemaker teleports out of that dimension.

INT. room 1 & 2, day

Sparkwave's wound regenerated quickly. Sitting next to him are Valiant and Cosmic Tomato, all drenched in sweat. Cosmic Tomato had pushed himself beyond what he was used to. Cosmic Tomato offers bro fist to Valiant.

Valiant

I don't do that.

Cosmic Tomato brings back his arm but extends it again as a high five. Valiant chuckles.

Valiant

Alright, that I will do.

Both high five, as Sparkwave stammers while sitting up.

Sparkwave

Ugh, okay. Did we, do it?

Thunderer

No, sorry buddy. My plan failed and you got injured.

Sparkwave

Ah man, that sucks, I was so hyped up to.

Phoenix Fighter laughed; we can see the relief on his face as he looks at Sparkwave.

Crimzon Mask

We are just glad that you are still alive kid.

A.T.O.M

I'll have to cut you short with the information that the nanites from Sparkwave's wound came directly from Lord Bludd's body, containing what I believe to be his blood cells.

Horokos

I've heard stories of creatures like him, but I've never faced them before. He is, shall we say, a type of vampire who uses his blood to control the dead, and apparently one with a more technological bonus.

Professor

Magic and technology, the most annoying mix.

Everyone looks at Professor.

Professor

Oi don't look at me like that, Horokos and I are an exception!

Valiant

So, a real vampire is what we're dealing with, one that has nanites infused within him. Story of my life.

Cosmaya manifests next to Valiant.

Cosmaya

Worst kind of creatures. Primarily this one.

Masaro

I'd like to ask about that, but can we talk about the elephant in the room about what looks like a spirit coming out this cosmic chick.

Valiant

Please don't call me that.

Cosmaya

I am a Celestiangel, embodiment of the Cosmic Force, and "Valiant" hosts my power. And to avoid longer explanations due to our dire situation, I can't do much since we're in a separate pocket dimension, but I can assist in any knowledge you seek. Does that help or do you have more?

Masaro

I get the gist.

Infinity

I like her.

Phoenix Fighter

So, what are we dealing with?

Cosmaya

The vampire in specific comes from a dark dimension, conqueror and destroyer of said dimension, known as Lord von Bludd. Any knowledge you have on vampires may as well be child's details. As our friend here said, (gesturing to Professor, who in turn tilts his hat), he is a master in dark arts and apparently techno infused nanites. It is the nanites that give him his vampiric abilities, the rest are of his own blasphemous practices.

Thunderer

A powerful monster like that transported here! What was Choicemaker thinking?

Cosmaya

Perhaps we should ask him ourselves.

Almost on cue, Choicemaker teleports amongst the heroes.

Phoenix Fighter

Speak of the devil...

Choicemaker

Hey there everybody. Good news!

Crimzon Mask

I doubt that.

Choicemaker

I may have a way of evening the odds. Ultrius is dealing with the vampire guy right now, so we got time, and I'm about to give him more.

Horkos

YOU LEFT HIM TO FIGHT THAT MONSTER?

Choicemaker

He's got this. And I told you, I got a solution.

Cosmaya

First observer, tell us how you brought that demon here? From my understanding, he was supposed to be locked up, not even beings such as us should have been able to get him out.

Choicemaker

Uuummm, weeeelllll. I may have some ways of bypassing them.

Cosmaya

(sigh)

You ignorant fool!

Choicemaker

Look, I told you, things were supposed to be done right and he'd be yoinked back to where he was. I made a miscalculation. But it's all good. We got a way of fixing this.

Phoenix Fighter

Let me guess, you will need us to fight.

Choicemaker

I'm afraid so. I will be able to temporarily close the rifts and disable the passage from this dimension. Won't last forever, but I will need you to defeat Bludd while I keep the passages closed.

Otherwise, the consequences for the entire multiverse could be catastrophic, once Lord Von Bludd is expanding his powers across all of realites, there is no stopping him.

Herculean

If that happens, let's all remember who let him out in the first place!

Choicemaker

I am aware of my mistakes, OKAY, and I am not asking for your forgiveness, just help.

Professor

Wait a damn minute, before you close the rifts why don't you bring heroes from the multiverse that can fight him, the world I come from has heroes that are immune to his control, Blue Terror, Pwervus, Furious Lizard, Immortal are just a few that we come to mind.

Choicemaker

I would need time to locate them, and in that time, Lord Von Bludd will reach the rifts and it will be too late. Ultrius is already keeping him busy, but he needs a helping hand. Oh yeah, and apparently there were dead people within this dimension, aaaaannnd-

Cosmaya

He raised them, didn't he?

Choicemaker

Another duty to add to the list.

Infinity

So, we got a nano vampire with an army of undead to deal with, and the future of multiverse lies in the hands of us twelve heroes.

Choicemaker

...Pretty much.

Ultrius teleports in the room, he is all beaten up and can hardly stand on his feet, he is more injured than the last time we saw him. Ultrius takes note of Sparkwave.

Ultrius

Good, you healed.

Horokos

Ultrius?

Ultrius

A small punishment for my actions.

Thunderer

Laki and Masaro, would you be able to keep his army of undead occupied?

Masaro

I will cremate them, so they never come back.

Tomato

Thunderer, I'm distance fighter, I could help a lot in the big boss fight.

Thunderer

I know, but I need someone to incapacitate a large group of zombies, so they won't be a problem for us if not kept away from the rifts.

Herculean

I will do it, I'm eager for a fight, and destroying a large group is exactly what I need right now.

Masaro

I bet I can take down more than you.

Thunderer

Max, I can't ask you to fight again.

Sparkwave

Hey, I'm scared like heck man after what happened, but I got friends back home that are gonna get hurt because of this Bludd guy. I ain't backing out.

Crimzon Mask

Of course, you are not.

Sparkwave smiles and Crimzon Mask replies with a nod.

Phoenix Fighter

We're all ready to do it, it's not like we have any other choice.

Valiant

But that doesn't change the fact that he overcame us when we put everything, we had against him.

Thunderer

That is why we will need you Ultrius.

Ultrius

I see where you are going with that, and I concur.

A.T.O.M.

Professor is your name right? I have a blood sample of Lord von Bludd. Do you think we can use my knowledge of nanites and your knowledge of biology to create something that could stop our foe?

Professor

I think it's worth a try.

Ultrius

What do you have in mind?

A.T.O.M.

Trust me when I say, if it's machine, it can be tempered with. We heard half of his abilities come from his nanites he is producing. If we can disable that half, he should be a lot easier to deal with.

Professor

Don't assume him cut down to just his dark magic that he'll be easier.

Horkos

Don't act like we haven't faced such before.

Professor

I'm not, I'm still for the challenge. Me and A.T.O.M. will need just a few minutes to cook the anti-nanite stake. By us time and we'll serve it to that vampire on a silver platter.

Sparkwave

Uuumm how are we gonna get him to eat that "steak?"

Everyone stares at Sparkwave with dumbfoundness. Crimzon Mask facepalms her mask.

Herculean

I also don't understand this plan of yours but if we gotta shove it down his throat, I'm for it.

Now everyone else stares at Herculean dumbfounded.

Thunderer

(Cough) We'll sort out the details later. A.T.O.M. and Professor make that anti-nano serum.

Phoenix Fighter

And the rest of us will distract Lord Von Bludd. Let's not get ahead of ourselves this time. We work as a team and have each other's backs.

Everyone preps up and is ready. The heroes then make their charge against the enemy.

Ultrius looks to Choicemaker.

Ultrius

Hey! The kid and the bug? Really?

Choicemaker

Well, she's an alien so that's one thing. As for the kid, yeah, his brains are all static, but he's got the spark in his heart.

Ultrius

I'll take it.

Choicemaker

You know, if we get the cameras still rolling, this may be the most entertaining thing we present. "Heroes of two worlds saving the multiverse from the Nano Vampire Lord!"

Ultrius

Really? You're still thinking that.

Choicemaker

Choicemaker's gotta make a choice. Hehe!

Choicemaker teleports away to close off the rifts.

Ultrius

Teh!.....Yeah we're doomed. Ah, to heck with it. Might as well put on a good show. Better do my part for the heroes.

Few minutes later. Horokos sits in an empty room leading to the rifts as Lord Von Bludd enters the door. Lord Bludd pauses and looked at Horokos.

Lord Bludd

You don't expect me to believe that you are the only one here?

Horokos

The man of your ambitions must be smarter than cheap tricks.

Lord Bludd

What is your endgame here then?

Horokos

I don't know, it's too early to give you any answer. I need to study your abilities first.

Lord Bludd

Heh, you fool. You understand that you may not live long enough to come to a conclusion that would help you and your comrades?

Horokos

Death is not what scares me.

Valiant enters through broken window and lands behind Lord Bludd.

Lord Bludd

Cosmic powered warrior? I have already killed users of the same and similar energy. If I were you, I would just hide and leave it to fate.

Valiant didn't respond, Cosmic Tomato appears next to her.

Tomato

Bet you never killed two users of cosmic energy at the same time!

Lord Bludd just looks at Tomato with a malicious grin.

Tomato

Ah crap, he's killed more than two users at the same time, has he?

Valiant

Fear not Cosmic Tomato, now we have a better understanding of each other's powers, we can take him.

Thunderer and Infinity fly in the room. Lord Bludd takes notice of them.

Lord Bludd

Is your plan to slow me down with long and boring, theatrical entrances?

Thunderer

You are not that far away from real plan actually.

Losing patience, Lord von Bludd ran at full speed towards Thunderer, but at one point he suddenly slowed down. Thunderer just avoided the attack by pushing Lord Bludd away from him. Lord Bludd looked to the side to see Ultrius sitting on the ground as he concentrated all his might on slowing down Lord Bludd with his power.

Lord Bludd

Interesting plan, I'll admit. But can the Observer keep me slowed down long enough?

Lord Bludd was about to strike Ultrius. But Sparkwave ran past Lord Bludd at full speed, punching him in the back, then punched him in the stomach again in passing, then slid between Lord Bludd's legs a third time and punched him in the knees, causing Lord Bludd to kneel and receives a full shock from Sparkwave's electricity. Sparkwave again runs around Lord Bludd, only for the vampire reach for Sparkwave's leg. But chains quickly wrapped around his arm, which Horokos released and stretched it back. His other arm was wrapped around by Paradise Roots from Cosmic Tomato and thus incapacitated him from attacking. Infinity released a stream of energy and blinded Lord Bludd, after which Sparkwave put distance between him and Lord

Bludd and shot his own stream of electricity. Valiant shot Lord Bludd in the head with her energy, causing him to stagger and bleed out. Everyone looked at each other with relief.

INT. VIP room, evening

Professor and A.T.O.M. are mixing a vile of fluids, while monitors are used to look at data. A.T.O.M. hacks into Lord Bludd's technology to analyze it. Phoenix Fighter and Crimzon Mask guard them as they watched the battle.

Phoenix Fighter

It worked! They have an upper hand.

Crimzon Mask

We should be down there helping them out, not here.

Phoenix Fighter

I agree but Thunderer is right. We are melee fighters, even with the equipment we have we risk being infected by vampire. Besides we are the last line of defense if he goes after our robot allies here.

Crimzon Mask looks at A.T.O.M. and Professor, who are arguing as potion next to them starts foam and to break down the test tube.

A.T.O.M.

How can someone with your IQ not predict this kind of reaction.

Professor

Just because I'm smart, doesn't mean I don't do stupid things. And you're one to talk Mr. A.I.

A.T.O.M.

Excuse me if I'm not familiar with the atomic elements here.

Crimzon Mask looks back at the battle and scowls.

Crimzon Mask

I don't know how some unintellectual "allies" can commit great or good things.

Phoenix Fighter

Hey, no need to be judgmental on anyone committing the great or good.

Crimzon Mask

I'm not, rather I mean it literally.

Phoenix Fighter looks back at the robot heroes. Seeing their bickering going further into almost childish.

Phoenix Fighter

Patience is a virtue.

Crimzon Mask

Worlds are at risk.

Phoenix Fighter

...Lets both just hold our breaths.

Crimzon Mask

Well, I trust our heavy hitters are doing ok against the undead horde.

INT. Basement.

Hordes of nanites infused undead are storming in a direction. With some flying back dismembered and/or burned.

Masaro

YEAH BABY! BURNING UP!

Herculean

OH, HOW I NEEDED TO LET LOOSE LIKE THIS!

Both Masaro and Herculean shout and whoop in enthusiasm as they fight off the undead hordes.

INT. VIP room, evening

Phoenix Fighter

Somehow, I think like they're fine.

INT. room 1 & 2, evening

When Lord Von Bludd saw a drop of blood flow from his nose and drip onto the ground, he became very angry. He suddenly pulled back his arms and knocked down Horokos and Cosmic Tomato, freeing himself, he then turns his focus on Valiant. Leaping at her he began punching her in the head, Thunderer leaped to the side, knocking Lord Bludd away from Valiant. Lord Blood grabs Thunderer's leg and throws him into the wall where Thunderer falls to the ground, Sparkwave runs towards Lord Bludd and performs a strong punch to the vampire's chin, and immediately runs away from him. Lord Bludd's takes a blade and cuts his hand, as it bleeds his hand begins to glow with dark magic.

Infinity

Heads up, I think he's done playing around and looking to get serious.

Thunderer removes his broken facemask and spits blood.

Thunderer

Hell, he touched me for a millisecond and managed to land a blow that broke a couple of ribs... And you're saying he's NOW getting serious.

Valiant

Don't lose hope, we're just here to hold him until A.T.O.M. and the Professor find a way to disable his...

Thunderer

Valiant, he did not use his mechanical or magical abilities in this fight earlier, we are currently facing his weakened strength! But now it looks like he's done playing around.

Valiant

I know that. I can tell he intends to finish this, he's losing patience. We need to be vigilant and keep going. Expect him to throw anything.

Horkos

Don't suppose your "spirit" friend told you that.

Valiant

I'm a physics theorist. I can tell these things just by examining.

Infinity

We can still do this. Sparkwave you good?

Sparkwave

OUCHIE!

Thunderer

You alright Max?

Sparkwave

Does that guy have a metal jaw or something?

Valiant

He must've used his own nanite cells and compressed them where you hit him. Thereby enduring the punch you gave him. Which I'm guessing he's going to do from now on with everything we throw at him.

Sparkwave

...So, metal jaw then. Got it. And I'm guessing you're saying we're gonna need to either hit harder or... play chicken with him.

Tomato

I hope you realize that game chicken is-

Sparkwave

I KNOW WHAT IT MEANS. What I'm saying is just keep him ticked off and focused on us.

Horkos

May need to cheap shot him at every angle and from distances. Keep him on us and keep laying it into him. If he does decide to use his extra powers, we're just going to have to take it. Let me take care of the magic part. And I agree with playing chicken. Going to need him chasing us while we cluck away.

Infinity

Why do I get the feeling your friend, the Professor, would say that.

Horkos

He would. Sometimes I think of what he says when he absent.

Lord Bludd charged again toward the heroes. Causing them to disperse away from him. The heroes take notice of Lord Bludd's bloody hand, seeing his blood act sentient and turn to tendrils. The tendril blood shoots out toward the heroes. Each dodges the tendrils but are then met with debris of the arena flying at them. Horokos senses the magic in the debris and notices them resonating off Lord Bludd.

Horkos

Looks like our enemy means business.

Thunderer

Then so will we. We all need to put everything against him.

Infinity taps into her power and charges up to the point her body begins to glow with pink color. Valiant does the same with her cosmic energy. She nods to Cosmic Tomato to reassure him, he to powers up. Horkos begins chanting to his staff as his power increases. Both Thunderer and Sparkwave also power up their electricity.

INT. VIP room, evening

Crimson Mask drew her blade.

Crimson Mask

That's it, I'm tired of standing on the sidelines!

Phoenix Fighter puts his hand in front of Crimson Mask.

Phoenix Fighter

I told you; we need to wait.

Crimson Mask

Why? Because a hooded guy from another universe said so? Why do we listen to him? Didn't Sparkwave almost die because of him?

Phoenix Fighter|

Because in theory I agree with him, we will be more of a nuisance than a benefit against a sci-fi vampire. After all, he is the leader of the Imaginary-verse team... And it seems that they are putting all their hopes in his decisions. Like it or not, cooperation is our best option for survival. Last thing we need to be is rash.

Phoenix Fighter looks at his fist, remembering him punching Thunderer. Regretting how he lost himself there. Both he and Crimson Mask are addressed by Professor.

Professor

In that case, we will have to act immediately, otherwise we will have problems of cosmic proportions.

Phoenix Fighter looked at the Professor in confusion, then turned in fear to see Lord Von Bludd holding Cosmic Tomato by the hair and dragging him along as the other heroes were defeated on the ground.

A.T.O.M.

We are too late...

Phoenix Fighter

No, you are not!

Professor

Buddy, please, there are two geniuses in this room, and you are not one of them.

Phoenix Fighter

I don't need to be a genius to understand that you were trying to create a virus that destroys a vampire's technological abilities. Instead, how about you "accidentally" create a virus that eats him from the inside out.

Professor

Hey! How would you feel if I started listing your failures?!

A.T.O.M.

No Professor, Phoenix Fighter is right. The nano cells are too sophisticated to attack. Instead, we make a viral that'll poison Lord Von Bludd and send the nanites into overdrive.

Professor

What are you talking about?! The results could be fatal... OH! I see, I'm starting to feel like I'm not one of those two geniuses either.

INT. room 1 & 2, night

Lord Von Bludd walks past the unconscious Infinity and Sparkwave, Thunderer looks at him in shock, he tries to put the electricity around his arm, but he is shaking and fails, he looks at Horokos, who is lying unconscious on the ground.

Thunderer

Hor... Horokos... HOROKOS...

Horokos doesn't answer, still lying unconscious, Lord Von Bludd looked at Thunderer and smiled slightly.

Lord Bludd

Choicemaker is trying his best to keep the rifts closed isn't he? I admit you all fought valiantly, but to no vale. The power of the multiverse is within my grasp.

Lord Bludd raises Cosmic Tomato and looks at him.

Lord Bludd

And this plant will be my first commander, with him I will conquer more worlds than I could imag...

Lord Von Bludd didn't have time to finish his sentence when Crimson Mask jumped on his shoulders and stuck a syringe into his neck.

He quickly threw her off his shoulder and pulled the syringe out of his neck, but the poison had already been injected into his body.

Lord Bludd

WHAT IS THIS?!

Phoenix Fighter kneed Lord Bludd in the jaw.

Phoenix Fighter

An Anti-Vampire Cocktail.

Lord Von Bludd slaps Phoenix Fighter away.

Lord Bludd

Your little vaccine has no affect.

Professor

We do not accept complaints!

A.T.O.M. hit Lord Bludd in the chest a couple of times with his lasers, causing him to drop Tomato, who was caught by the Professor and carried away from the fight. Lord Bludd angrily approached A.T.O.M., as the latter shot him in the chest, Lord Bludd grabbed his shoulders and began to squeeze, denting A.T.O.M.'s metal on his shoulders. Suddenly Lord Bludd stopped and dropped A.T.O.M., he suddenly winced and grunted in pain. Veins bulged around his body and glows from the nanites.

Lord Bludd

WHAT IS HAPPENING?

A.T.O.M.

You're essentially experiencing akin to a stroke, epilepsy, headaches, all that. And your "immune system" is working overtime.

Ergo, too much for you to handle.

Lord Bludd writhes in pain and runs away. After escaping, Ultrius stops using his abilities and falls to the ground with a thinning gray beard and visibly, not much, but older.

Crimson Mask

What happened to him?

Professor

In order to slow down someone, he needs to make himself faster, who knows how much time passed for Ultrius as he was cantering the speed of Lord Von Bludd.

EXT. Cementery next to the colosseum. Night

Massaro and Herculean were fighting the zombie warriors, when they all fell to the ground, dead.

Masaro

Ah man, that's not fair!

Hercualen

I was just getting in the zone to.

Choicemaker hovered in the air above them, all sweaty and visibly tired.

Choicemaker

Did we... Did we win?

Choicemaker loses consciousness and falls to the ground between Masaro and Hercluean.

Masaro

What should we do with him?

Herculean

I really want to punch his teeth out. But I learned something from earth that's better.

INT. Interdimensional room, night

Herculean, Choicemaker and Massaro enter the room, they see the other heroes who are all injured lying/sitting on the ground and trying to gather strength. Choicemaker is rubbing his backside with an uncomfortable face.

Professor

What happened to you?

Choicemaker

Don't ask! Please tell me that you have defeated Lord Von Bludd?

Phoenix Fighter nodded negatively.

Masaro

What! I thought you had a plan?

Hercualean

Green hooded character failed again, didn't he? I knew we shouldn't trust his stupid ideas.

Infinity

His plan did much more than your simple punching did.

Hercuelan

Do you want to fight?!

Ultrius

Enough! The Choicemaker is here, that means the rifts are open again.

Lord Von Bludd is currently in a weakened state, but that doesn't mean he can't find a hideout in one of the dimensions and wait there to recover in order to continue with his plan.

A.T.O.M.

I calculate Bludd will be in this weakened state within the next hour, maybe less.

Valiant

If we don't act quickly, everything we have done will be in vain.

Tomato

Yeah, but...

Thunderer gets up from the ground, starts to limp on one leg because he's injured, in pain he tries to keep going, Infinity tries to get up after him, but her hands are shaking and she doesn't have the strength to do it, Lucky, Valiant, Horokos and Crimson mask too.

Infinity

Leo, wait, please.

Thunderer

I can't do that honey boo, you know me.

Horokos

Thunderer, you are weak, you will die.

Thunderer

Well, thank you for that.

Horokos

You don't understand. You can't win in that state, but if Cosmic

Tomato and Valiant heal you, just like they did with Sparkwave, then, you can give your best, at least.

Infinity

Going there alone is suicide.

Sparkwave

But, he won't be going alone, I will be there with him.

Valiant

I don't have enough energy to heal both of you. Cosmaya tells me being out of our universe too long is tempering my abilities.

Sparkwave

Look, I've been through a lot of butt kickings and near deaths. The job's not done, and I got enough reasons to keep going. I'll be fine by the time we get to him.

Thunderer

I can't ask you to do that, Max...

Sparkwave

And you don't have to, I am a volunteer.

Phoenix Fighter

Thunderer, as much as I agree and disagree with you, you will need Sparkwave by your side, kids got the guts and power to aid you. The unfortunate truth is that the Observer from our world created this problem.

Choicemaker

Can we please move on from that? I get it already!

Phoenix Fighter

I'm sorry that I can't do more... I feel helpless... Until yesterday I was fighting street gangs, mafias, evil corps, and then I get thrown into the arena with "out of this world" forces...

Thunderer

You saved us when you injected Bludd with poison, an ordinary man jumped on a vampire without fear, in my eyes you are not useless.

Horokos

Enough with emotional talk, please. We're on a time limit here. We need to intercept Lord Von Bludd before he jumps to another dimension.

INT. Colosseum Basement

Within the rubble of the destroyed Colosseum Lord Von Bludd sat in pain. All his nanites were scrambling inside him.

Lord Von Bludd

Blast these mortals. How dare they cause this infliction on me. I swear I will make them suffer; I'll make them watch as I destroy their world's first.

Lord Von Bludd gets to his feet and heads to where the rifts were.

Lord Von Bludd

I know for a fact there are still some rifts open. Observers can't afford to close them all off. I'll slip into one of them and recover myself. Heh, maybe whatever dimension I come to will have potential soldiers to use to take this realm.

Lord Von Bludd sneaks around before finally coming across an open rift. Slowly making his way towards the rift.

Lord Von Bludd

My vengeance... shall be sated.

Before the vampire could make it to rift, he is intercepted by a lightning bolt that strikes in front of him. He staggers back from the blast and smells the air.

Lord Von Bludd

You know not when to give up, do you?

Thunderer

Only when my lungs stop functioning, my brain shuts down, and my heart gives out.

Lord Von Bludd

HA! Seems like you're nearly there. I can smell the blood leaking out of you.

Thunderer

Nothing band aids will hold.

Lord Von Bludd

Grrrrr! I am done playing games. Don't assume my weakened state means I'm incapable of tearing you apart.

Lord Von Bludd looks around and is surprised. But smiles devilishly.

Lord Von Bludd

So, you came alone. Perhaps the knight in shiny may be a hero who kills the monster in most fairy tales, but this isn't a fairy tales.

Lord Von Bludd pulls a knife out and his hand glow with sinister magic. He's unable to cast more power but is confident enough in killing Thunderer. He prepares to lunge towards Thunderer but is swiftly knocked aside by a fast impact.

Sparkwave

How bout two shiny, electrifying knights. Heh!

Sparkwave sheepishly looks around for approval. Feeling a little embarrassed. Under his own mask, Thunderer smirks.

Bludd gets to his feet and growls.

Lord Von Bludd

A child and a crippled. Is this the last line of defense you have to offer?

Thunderer

I've made do with worse for wear.

Sparkwave

Same hear...I think.

Lord Von Bludd

How is it that such pathetic lifeforms with such power do not allow themselves to be as gods?

Thunderer

I'm not up for such job applications.

Sparkwave

I believe that spot is already taken care of. We are just meant to kicks the butts of guys like you who think your...all that.

Lord Von Bludd

Insignificant. Who do you mortals think you are?

Thunderer and Sparkwave look at each with other with confidence and nod.

Sparkwave

That's a good question. Let's find out.

Sparkwave begins powering up his electricity as Thunderer does the same. Lord Von Bludd growls and takes a killing intent stance.
Unable to move with super speed, Lord Von Bludd jumped to the side to avoid Thunderer's lightning strike, but he was met there by Sparkwave, who hit him with an uppercut and knocked him on his back.

Sparkwave

To slow!

Thunderer

You are getting good with this one liners Max!

Sparkwave

Thank you, Thunderer

Lord Von Bludd

This is all joke to you, a bloody joke! You satisfy yourself by wearing costumes, making jokes and punching "Villains". But in reality, you don't change anything, after me, ten more of them will appear, poisoned by the hatred of this world, their souls will be lost because of the years of suffering forced upon us. And have you "Heroes" ever wondered why we are like that, what corrupted us and why we do what we do?

Sparkwave

Of course, we are here to help, anyone who needs help

Sparkwave reached out to help Lord Von Bludd up, but the vampire smirked and was ready to stab Sparkwave's arm with his blade, Thunderer pulled Sparkwave back and kicked the vampire away from Sparkwave. Lord Von Bludd looked to charge but dropped to his knees and coughed up blood. Thunderer takes notice.

Thunderer

Looks like the vaccine had a much stronger effect on you than we expected. Don't think about taking over a new world, you won't have enough time, surrender, and let us find you a cure in our base.

Lord Von Bludd

"Only when my lungs stop functioning, my brain shuts down, and my heart gives out"

Lord Von Bludd said that, taunting Thunderer, to which Thunderer just rolled his eyes.

Sparkwave

Are you thinking what I'm thinking?

Thunderer

Yes, but we will not drag this out any longer. Lord Von Bludd, I am Thunderer of the Cosmic Force Elites, I am bringing you to the base of operations for proper medical attention, followed by a trial.

Lord Von Bludd suddenly got up from the ground and swung his fist at Thunderer, Thunderer let himself take the blow, which didn't have much effect. Lord Von Bludd looked at Thunderer in disbelief, then with his other hand he tried to stab Thunderer in the stomach with his dagger, Sparkwave caught and stopped that hand.

Sparkwave

Is it just me, or is this hard to watch?

Thunderer

Just give up man, don't make us do this...

Lord Von Bludd bowed his head, dropped his dagger and fell to his knees after realizing that the poison had caused him to lose not only his super speed but also his super strength.

Lord Von Bludd

I would rather die than receive mercy from the enemy.

Thunderer sits down on the ground next to the vampire, while Sparkwave looks at him in confusion.

Sparkwave

Thunderer?

Thunderer

It's ok... Bludd, tell me now, what is the reason for all of this, what made you become who you are now?

Lord Von Bludd looks at Thunderer in anger.

Lord Von Bludd

What are you doing?! WHAT ARE YOU DOING! Don't show me any sympathy now! You didn't show me any of that when I got here!

Sparkwave

To be fair, since you arrived you attacked right away. There was no chance to talk to you until you were defeated.

Lord Von Bludd

I am not defeated! I AM STILL BREATHING!

Lord Von Bludd swung at Sparkwave, but he only knocked himself to the ground and started coughing. Thunderer stood up and began walking towards the basement exit.

Thunderer

Let's go Max, our job is done here.

INT. Colosseum hallway, night

Thunderer and Sparkwave are walking down the hallway

Sparkwave

We can't just let him go.

Thunderer

We are not, I leave it to the Observers. He is delusional, our presence just annoys him even more... One thing he said, we can't help everyone, especially not those who don't want help. There are things that are beyond our reach.

Sparkwave

I know... This is what has been bothering me for some time. I have these amazing powers, fantastic, but there are so many things I can't do. I can give a hungry man a meal, but I can't stop world hunger. I can stop a bank robbery, but not a citywide crime. I can run super fast, but I can't get everywhere on time...

Thunderer stopped and placed his hand on Sparkwave's shoulder

Thunderer

In a way, it's good that you think about these things, it shows that you have a heart and that you care, but at the same time, don't let yourself feel powerless. Don't focus on the things you can't do, focus on what you can and help everyone you can. It may not seem like a lot, but everyone you help will tell you differently.

Sparkwave smiled and nodded in agreement.

Sparkwave

I kind've hate it when I gotta keep being reminded of that.

Thunderer

It'll sink in eventually... You understand that term, right?

Sparkwave (slight laughs)

Yes, I do!

Thunderer

Just making sure.

Ground started shaking, both Thunderer and Sparkwave turned around to run back into the room where Lord Von Bludd was. Believing he was responsible.

Thunderer

What now!?

INT. Colosseum Basement

A large dimensional crack opens near Lord Von Bludd, from it came out the arm and head of a large bright purple robotic figure, it grabbed Lord Von Bludd by the hair and dragged him halfway into the crack.

Mysterious Figure

Lord Von Bludd! A fine specimen you are, finally, mine. Your design will be glorious in the future.

Both Von Bludd and the large figure disappeared before Sparkwave and Thunderer could get to him. Barely able to react to the event that just happened.

Sparkwave

What was that?

Thunderer (to himself)

And what glorious thing was it talking about?

INT. A room in an inter-dimensional coliseum. Day

As all the heroes lie down and sit on the floor tired and injured, two dimensional cracks open. One next to Ultrius, the other next to Choicemaker, robot hands grabbed them and pulled them into the cracks, before the heroes had time to react.

Masaro

What the! What just happened?

Phoenix Fighter

Should we be worried?

Tomato

Knowing Ultrius, and I don't know him very well, this is some sort of trick.

Horokos

Observers are going to punish them for helping us. That might've been them.

A.T.O.M

Are we expected to help them?

Professor

Nah, no one knows where the Observers are or who they are, and both Ultrius and Choicemaker have made their own choices.

Sparkwave ran into the room with Thunderer.

Sparkwave

Lord Von Bludd, he is...

Crimson Mask

Gone? It's not just him, those two Observers were also taken.

Thunderer

What is the meaning of this?!

Horokos

I think that's a job for another time.

Infinity

Honey, we are all injured and tired, let's get home to rest.

Thunderer (sighs)

You are right. Laki, open portals to our dimension and to Crimzonverse's.

Phoenix Fighter

Wait, what! You could do that all the time and chose to stay here?

Tomato

We weren't gonna dip on you guys like that.

Masaro

What is the point of running away?

Infinity

We had to stay to see what Ultrius wanted and react in time.

Herculean

Wait! Our matches are not over, there is no clear winner.

Crimzon Mask

Really? You are upset about that.

Professor

Well, given that we are interrupted and tired, let's say it is a draw.

Herculean

I can't do that!

Masaro

Me neither!

Infinity

Let's just meet again in a friendly match where we will determine the winner.

Masaro

That's more like it!

Herculean

That I can do!

Crimzon Mask

With all due respect, but I'll pass on that.

Horkos

Me to. Only if somethings serious like what just happen will I join in.

All the heroes lined up in two lines, looking at each other, Massaro and Herculean shook hands, Valiant and Cosmic Tomato shook hands, Professor and A.T.O.M. shook hands, Horokos and Crimzon Mask nodded at each other, Phoenix Fighter and Infinity shook hands, Thunderer and Sparkwave shook hands.

Phoenix Fighter

It was honor to fight alongside the Imaginaryverse

Thunderer

The honor is mutual, I'm glad to have met more good people from the Crimzonverse, and I hope we will meet again, under better circumstances.

Tomato

Hey... Uh, I hate to be that guy, but how do I open portal to their universe?

A.T.O.M.

Try using the traces Choicemaker left behind when he teleported us here.

Tomato

Oh, yeah, right.

Two portals opened and the heroes slowly returned to their universes, only Thunderer and Sparkwave remained. Sparkwave smiled and Thunderer nodded. Both of them passed through portals. Only an empty room remains.

Moments later a dimensional rift cracks open. Exiting out of it is the hulking robotic figure, fully entering the dimension. Hulking in size with a purple metallic body structure, with some of the limbs appearing pale white flesh skin, and red lights vibrating on its armor.

Mysterious Figure

Blasted! I just missed them. They would've made fine specimens. Oh well, I know where their homes are thanks to those Observers. I have finally broken through into this dimension leading to all realities.

Soon they will belong to me, Amoebos! As all worlds I conquer.

Hehehahaha!

We see through the security camera; the live broadcast is interrupted and the text "To be continued" is on the screen.
